NEW WELL GUSHES 8-INCH STREAM

AMARILLO, May 2. — The Smith-Capers well, located in the southern edge of Hutchinson county, gushed a solid eight inch stream of oil over the derrick today. The well was drilled into the sand a few days ago and had been capped, awaiting the arrival of some of the owners.

REPORT ITALY HAS SECRET POLITICAL PACT WITH TURKEY

DISCLOSURE JUST MADE ALTHOUGH SUSPECTED FOR SOME TIME.

TROOPS ARE WITHDRAWN FROM MEANDOW VALLEY

Number of Concessions Are Obtained By Italians, It is Reported.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 2.—The Pall Mall Gazette and Globe today says it had just learned that Italy, following France's example, has made a secret political pact with the Turkish nationalist government at Angora, "behind Great Britain's back."

"Full disclosure of this has only just been made," says the newspaper, "although it has been suspected for some time. The consequences are likely to be serious."

The newspaper says Italy's withdrawal of her troops from the Meandow valley, in Asia Minor, as was reported in a Constantinople dispatch of April 13, was possible because of the arrangement with the Turks. The Turks were informed beforehand of this movement, it says, similar knowledge being denied to the Greeks whose flank was left dangerously exposed. The newspaper says the Italians in return received necessary consideration of concessions in the Meander valley and the eastern villages of Van, Bitlis and Erzerum.

Italy has also undertaken, it continues, to press for further favors from the entente to Turkey relating to Thrace, including allied commissions of control at Constantinople, and curtailment of capitulations. Italy also consented to the extension of local self government.

The Angora government in return pledged to refrain from anti-Italian propaganda there.

ALLEGED PLOT TO ROB VERA CRUZ-MEXICO CITY TRAIN IS FRUSTRATED

MEXICO CITY, May 2.—An alleged plot by General Celso Cepeda to hold up a Vera Cruz-Mexico City train carrying more than 500,000 pesos and with this plunder to declare a rebellion against the government was frustrated last night when one of his trusted aides instead of robbing a train at San Andres as planned boarded it with followers, rode to Mexico City and made a report to the war department. General Cepeda, who is on the army active list, has been living extravagently in Mexico City for several months and officials here explained pressing money needs as the cause of his alleged defections.

SHELL WITHOUT A CLUE TO SLAYER OF WOMAN FOUND AT PARSONAGE

HOOPESTON, ILL., May 2.—Authorities who have been investigating the death of Miss Gertrude Hanna, whose body was found nearly a week ago in an unoccupied parsonage here, today still were without a clue as to the method of her death and the case virtually was relegated to the realm of unsolved mysteries.

Possibility of a clue remained, however, with the report expected today from the Columbus Memorial hospital as to a chemical analysis of the young woman's vital organs.

CHARGE DAUGHERTY PAID FOR OBTAINING RELEASE OF MORSE

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Reports that Harry M. Daugherty, now attorney general, had received a fee of $25,000 from Charles W. Morse, New York, for obtaining Morse's release in 1913 from the Atlanta federal prison were repeated in the senate today by Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, and denied by friends of the present attorney general.

The Arkansas senator said the report was based "upon public information." Senator Watson, republican, Indiana, said he had talked with Mr. Daugherty about the report and it was untrue. Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire, broke into the discussion to say that William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury had "received large fees" from Morse in connection with shipping contracts recently made the basis of indictments in federal courts here.

THREE HOME RUNS MADE IN A ROW

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—In the fourth inning of today's Philadelphia-Washington game the Athletics made three home runs in a row, the circuit swatters being Tillie Walker, Perkins and Miller. It was Walker's second homer of the game. Mogridge was pitching and was relieved by Francis.

WILL REQUEST THE PRESIDENT TO O. K. NEW "BONUS" BILL

COMMITTEE ADOPTS THE McCUMBER PLAN FOR LOAN TO VETERANS.

COULD BORROW AMOUNT EQUAL TO 50 PER CENT

At End of Three Years the Loan Value of Certificates Would Be Eighty Per Cent.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—President Harding is to be asked by the senate finance committee republicans to approve a soldiers bonus bill differing from the house measure only in minor essentials.

This was decided at a conference of committee republicans today at which, senators said, the Smoot plan of substituting a 20 year endowment life insurance plans for the adjusted service certificate was discarded without a record vote. The Smoot plan would have provided for no specific loans on the policies.

The measure to be taken to the president is what is known as the McCumber plan, which would provide for immediate loans to the veterans equal to 50 per cent of their adjusted service pay at the rate of $1 a day for domestic service and $1.25 a day for overseas service. At the end of three years the loan value of the certificates would be 80 per cent of adjusted service pay plus four and a half per cent interest annually.

Joseph S. McCoy, the government actuary, presented estimates to the committee showing the cost of the McCumber plan for the fiscal year was $77,000,000; $91,000,000 in the second year, $73,000,000 in the third year, and $376,000,000 in the fourth year, with the ultimate cost approximately $4,000,000,000. The cost include payments on account of death, cash to veterans entitled to not more than $50, vocational training and farm and home aid. The land settlement option has been eliminated from the bill.

GOVERNOR WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH THE EXECUTION OF PARKER

FORT WORTH, May 2.—Governor Neff, here today en route to Denton and Commerce, announced that he would not interfere with the execution in Houston of Carl Parker, convicted of murder.

GOVERNOR SAYS RECORDS WERE STUDIED CAREFULLY

AUSTIN, May 2.—Governor Neff will not interfere with the execution of Carl Parker, sentenced to hang in Houston next Thursday for the murder of Mordie Conroy.

This message was given to Secretary Walthall by telephone from the governor at Denton. The governor said he had studied carefully the records in the case before leaving Austin on his present speaking tour, and there was nothing in them that prompted him to change the verdict of the jury.

ATTORNEY WILL MAKE A PERSONAL APPEAL

HOUSTON, TEXAS, May 2.—Carl Parker, sentenced to hang Thursday, stoically heard the report today that the governor refuses to intervent in his case. One of his attorneys, however, announced he would personally communicate with the governor again.

"If it must happen," said Parker, "I have only one request, and that is that my body be sent home to West Virginia to be buried so that it may rest with the other members of my family."

Are Investigating Report Body Held Unburied 13 Years

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 2.—Reports that the body of Sarmocoa Concepho, an Italian, who was fatally wounded in a fight near McColl, S. C., 13 years ago, had been held unburied since that time by an undertaker at Laruinburg, N. C., because of expenses incurred by the undertaker in preparing the body for burial, have resulted in an investigation by Charles Mauro, Italian consul here.

The investigation has resulted in obtaining of statements to support the reports, Consul Mauro said today. The consul added that after further inquiry he planned to bring the matter to the attention of the Italian embassy in Washington.

The reports received here included one to the truth of which C. H. Thompson, a Charleston man, has testified, that the undertaker recently displayed the body in an upright position in te window of his establishment.

RAILWAY CLERKS PLAN A CO-OPERATIVE BANK

DALLAS, May 2.—Organization of a co-operative bank was discussed at today's sessions of the Botherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employes convention. Tentative plans call for the bank to be established at Cincinnati, one bank to represent the entire brotherhood at first, but branches to be considered later in the convention.

Routine business occupied the remainder of the time of the morning session.

ADDITIONAL RAINS ADD TO SUFFERING IN FLOODED AREAS

DALLAS, TEXAS, May 2.—Continued rains over Sunday and Monday with more rain forecast for today and tomorrow in various sections of the state increased the sufferings of the hundreds of people made homeless by last week's floods and aggravated general conditions resulting from heavy precipitation and high waters.

Lowland residents were reported moving from the Brazos, San Gabriel, Colorado, San Saba, Pedernales and other river bottoms. Flood conditions were threatened in lower sections of the state as flood waters from up state swept toward the gulf. Heavy damage to crops and lowland towns is feared.

Reports here indicate the rain is general over widespread areas of north, central and south Texas.

OVERFLOWS ALONG THE SOUTH TEXAS STREAMS

HOUSTON, May 2. — Overflows along the principal south Texas streams were reported to the Houston weather bureau today while additional rains caused fear of more serious high water. The prospect is for more rain, weather bureau officials said.

While the crest of the Brazos and Trinity river, which for several days have been out of banks in places, were rushing to swell the gulf, the Colorado river is reported to have reached the highest stage at Austin since the flood of 1900.

IRREGULAR TROOPS IRISH ARMY INVADE CITY OF KILKENNEY

By Associated Press.

KILKENNEY, IRELAND, May 2.—Large bodies of Irish republican army irregular troops invaded this city this forenoon and occupied all the strategic points. They took over a number of buildings, including the city hall, the Bank of Ireland, Kilkenney Castle and the work house.

The regulars at the military barracks at once began dispaying great activity and a portion of the irregulars at Green Bridge surrendered to them after a bief exchange of shots.

MANY ARE KILLED IN RIOTS STAGED IN BELFAST

By Associated Press.

BELFAST, May 2.—According to Belfast returns made public today, 148 protestants and 183 catholics were killed in Belfast in the period from July 1, 1920, to April 29, 1922.

A postman was killed and his son wounded when they were ambushed last evening while delivering letters in the Keady district of Armagho.

PREMIER OF JAPAN ASKS RESIGNATION CABINET MEMBERS

LONDON, May 2.—The Japanese cabinet headed by Premier Takahashi has resigned for the purpose of permitting a partial reorganization of the ministry, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Tokio today.

By Associated Press.

TOKIO, May 2.—Premier Takahashi is reported to have requested the resignation of his cabinet with a view to forming a new government in sympathy with his views. A break in the Seyukai, or government party, is possible in consequence.

Viscount Takahashi, who is head of the cabinet, following the assassination of Premier Hara, is one of the leaders of the Seyukai party. He had several times declared in favor of speedy ratification by Japan of the quadruple treaty for maintenance of peace in the Pacific, framed at the Washington conference.

CORPUS CHRISTI HAS ANTI-KLAN MEETING

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS, May 1.—About one hundred attended an anti-Ku Klux Klan meeting held in the city hall here last night when several addresses were made. It was announced that formal organization would be gone into at a meeting next Monday night.

SHELL GROUP GETS BIG OIL CONCESSION FROM THE RUSSIANS

WILL CONTROL ALL SALES AND PRODUCTION FOR AGREED PERIOD.

FIFTY PER CENT GOES TO THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT

Difficult Complications May Result Over Standard Oil Interests.

LONDON, May 2.—A gigantic industrial agreement was signed on Sunday at Genoa by representatives of the Russian soviet government and the Shell group of British oil companies, telegraphs the Genoa correspondent of the Evening News.

Under the agreement, he writes, the Shell group will control all sales and under certain condition all production of oil in every part of Russia for an agreed period. The concession may be renewed by mutual consent.

Fifty per cent of the net profits will be allotted to the soviet government and the other 50 per cent to the Shell group. The working of the oil fields will be administered by the company under the provision of the Russian juridical code and the proviso that not more than 50 per cent of the workers employed shall be foreigners.

The correspondent understands the company has arranged to apply the agreement almost immediately to the Caspian fields and also to develop the vast potential fields in Uralsk province. The Russian oil fields next to those of the United States, are the most prolific in the world.

It is more than possible, adds the dispatch, that difficult complications may reslut over the working of important areas in which the Standard Oil company had concessions prior to the soviet nationalization of the fields.

CONTRACT WAS EXECUTED IN LONDON IN FEBRUARY

PARIS, May 2.—The contract between the Russian soviet government and the Shell group of British oil companies by which the latter obtains a monopoly of the transportation and sales of Russian petroleum, says a dispatch to L' Information, from Genoa, was drawn up in London in February. It was signed and made public, he adds, as soon as the attitude of M. Barthou of the French Genoa delegation on the question of recognition of private property rights in Russia became known.

DENY HAVING MADE AN INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT

GENOA, May 2.—The Genoa correspondent for the London Evening News in a dispatch to his paper this afternoon quotes Colonel Boyle, representing the Shell group of British oil companies and Royal Dutch interests here as denying that an industrial agreement was signed here Sunday between these interests and the Russian soviet government as had been reported.

Reuters' correspondent here says the Russian delegation to the economic conference also flatly denied having made any concession to the Shell interests.

DISMISS THE CASE AGAINST GOVERNOR; WILL FILE ANOTHER

JACKON, MISS., May 2.—The damage suit against Governor Russell, alleging seduction, was dismissed this afternoon by Judge Edwin Holmes on the grounds of lack of jurisdiction.

Counsel for Miss Frances Birkhead, plaintiff, announced they immediately would file suit in the Oxford division, northern district of the federal court, the district in which Governor Russell has his legal residence. The amount asked in the suit was $100,000.

Judge Holmes' action was on a motion of the defense after Governor Russell had testified his legal residence was in Oxford.

Announcement that the suit would be filed at Oxford means it wii not come to trial until next December, it was explained.

ATTACK JURISDICTION IN GOVERNOR RUSSELL'S CASE

JACKSON, MISS., May 2.—A motion to dismiss the $100,000 damage suit of Miss Frances Birkhead against Governor Lee M. Russell was to be argued before Judge E. R. Holmes of the federal court for the southern district of Mississippi today.

When court convened this morning the case was included in the call of the docket and the motion to dismiss was filed on the ground of want of jurisdiction, it being alleged that Governor Russell is a resident of Oxford, which is in the northern district and cannot legally be sued in the southern district.

Rumors were current that a compromise was being arranged, but this the defense denied, declaring they would not consent to any compromise.

CHARGE OVER-PRESCRIBING AND SUPPLYING OF LIQUOR

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Inauguration of a nation-wide campaign against physicians and druggists who have been over-prescribing and supplying liquor for imaginary ills was announced today by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes.

FIVE DEAD AND ABOUT ONE HUNDRED WOUNDED

ROME, May 1.—Five dead and about one hundred wounded make up the May day roll of casualties in Italy. None of the disorders reached any degree of a revolutionary nature.

PLAN ARBITRATION COMMISSION FOR RUSSIAN AFFAIRS

By Associated Press.

GENOA, May 2.—It was announced by the British representatives here that the memorandum to be handed to the Russians "embodies the maximum the powers are willing to give the Russian government and the minimum which the powers will accept from Russia."

"If the soviet delegates do not accept the general lines of this document," it was said, "then it is certain all negotiations with Russia will be suspended for some time, probably until another form of government arises in Russia."

GENOA, May 2.—The sub-commission on Russian affairs was to meet this afternoon for final approval of the memorandum to the Russians, the details of which were completed late last night. The memorandum will probably be sent to the Russians later in the day.

The document provides for the establishment of a mixed arbitration commission for controlling the debts owned to holders of Russian government bonds, the chairman of which would be named by Chief Justice Taft of the United States supreme court. Mixed tribunals would be set up to deal with the question of the property of foreigners in Russian which has been nationalized.

Belgium alone was against the latter feature, France adbandoning her objections to Great Britain's project. The delegations insisted on restitution of nationalized property to its former owners.

VICE PREMIER BARTHOU LEAVES GENOA FOR PARIS

GENOA, May 2. — Vice-Premier Barthou, head of the French delegation at the economic conference, left for Paris today for a conference with Premier Poincare and the cabinet. He is expected back Sunday or Monday morning. Before leaving he conferred with Prime Minister Lloyd George. The atmosphere of the meeting was said to be most cordial.

Mr. Lloyd George, it is understood, impressed again upon the Frenchman his view of the desirability that a meeting of the signatories of the treaty of Versailles be held at the earliest possible moment in some Mediterranean town.

M. Barthou is due to reach Paris at 1:20 tomorrow morning. Before leaving here he answered the letter written by M. Tchitcherin on April 30, in which the Russian foreign minister denied the existence of military or political clauses in the Russo-German treaty, and declared there was no reason why the friendliest relations should not be established between Russia and France.

M. Barthou in his reply voiced his satisfaction at the letter and declared the French government and people were only dissatisfied with the Russians who signed the Brest-Litovsk treaty.

WILLING FOR TAFT TO SUGGEST A CHAIRMAN

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Despite its policy of nonparticipation in the Genoa negotiations, the administration sees no objection to acceptance by Chief Justice Taft of the invitation to name a charman of the proposed commission for control of debts owed by the Russian government to foreign bond holders. Whether the chief justice is to serve in that capacity is said to be regarded by administration officials as a question which Mr. Taft must decide for himself. It is considered likely, however, that if a formal invitation is received he will consult the wishes of the executive brane hof the government.

RANCHMAN DIES FROM WOUNDS RECEIVED IN A GUN BATTLE APRIL 17

SAN ANGELO, TEXAS, May 2.—O. L. Hopkins, cattleman of Schleicher county, died last night at Eldorado from wounds received April 17 when he and David Sheen, another ranchman, engaged in a gun fight on the Sheen ranch. Sheen, who has been at liberty under $750 bond on a charge of assault to murder, was reported en route to Eldorado today where the charge against him will be changed to murder, according to Sheriff Leudecke. His son, Louis Sheen, also is out under $750 bond in connection with the affair.

DEPUTY MARSHAL IS ASKED ABOUT 'KLAN' ON BEING QUALIFIED

BEAUMONT, May 2.—J. C. Abernathy was sworn in here today as deputy United States marshal, in response to a query from United States Marshal Baer as to whether he was a member of the Ku Klux Klan. Mr. Abernathy replied he was not.

WOMAN ARRESTED CHARGED WITH THE DEATH OF NEPHEW

WITH THE CHILD SHE WAS FOUND ON THE FLOOR WITH GAS ON.

PHYSICIAN WAS ABLE TO REVIVE THE WOMAN

Attempted Suicide Indicated By Note to Man With Whom She Quarreled.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Miss Violet Black Duncan, a pretty 19 year old divorcee living on the north side, was arrested today by police charged with the murder of her nephew, Hollis Boyd, 2½ years old, of Alton Park, Tenn.

The child was found dead in Miss Duncan's apartment last Saturday night. Miss Duncan lay on the floor beside the boy with three gas range jets turned on full force. She was revived by a physician.

The attempted suicide of the young woman was believed by police to have resulted from a quarrel with R. C. Dubay, said to be a wealthy business man of Atlanta, Ga.

It was said Dubay saw the young woman riding in a motor bus with another man, as a result of which he is said to have jilted her.

When neighbors broke into Miss Duncan's apartment Saturday night a note addressed to Dubay was clutched in her hand. It read.

"Davy, send Hollis to sister for me. I'm so tired, I don't want to live. I love you. Violet."

According to police, Miss Duncan came to Chicago last February from Atlanta, where she met Dubay after obtaining a divorce from Walter Duncan of Chattanooga, Tenn. Miss Duncan was married when she was 14 years of age, police said.

On his way to a ball game Saturday, Dubay saw Miss Duncan board a bus with another man. Later in the day he called at her apartment and after a quarrel is said to have told her he would not marry her. Several hours later he received a telephone call from Miss Duncan who asked him to come to her home. When Dubay arrived he smelled the escaping gas, and with the aid of neighbors, broke into the apartment.

BORAH SCORES THE HAITI-SAN DOMINGO POLICY OF THE U. S.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Abandonment by the United States of the "war-breeding policy of imperialism," in its relations with Haiti and San Domingo was urged by Senator Borah of Idaho last night in an address in Carnegie Hall, before the Haiti-San Domingo Independent society.

"We have discussed the government of Haiti and San Domingo," the senator declared. "We have killed your people, not by hundreds but by thousands. We have substituted for your government a military government.

"We have forced, and are forcing upon them large debts and at an exhorbitant expense. We are now urging them to accept still larger debts, debts which they declare they do not want, do not need, and will never be able to pay.

"If we want peace, we must first do justice. Give these people their liberties. Help them, but don't rob them. Counsel and advise with them, but do not destroy their government and take away their property and their rights. Do not load them with debts and demoralize their community and corrupt their leaders and enslave their people."

PRESIDENT WANTS FUND TO PROSECUTE WAR FRAUD CASES

WASHINGTON, May 2.—A request for a special appropriation of $500,000 to be used in prosecution of war fraud cases was sent to the house today by President Harding. The budget communication explained that the fund would be used for investigation or prosecution of all cases, whether civil or commercial, growing out of the war.

LADY ASTOR PAYS VISIT TO CITY OF RICHMOND WHERE SHE WAS RAISED

RICHMOND, VA., May 2.—Lady Astor, who was Miss Nancy Langhorne, and who was raised in this city, returned to Richmond today for the first time since she became a member of the British parliament. She was accorded a warm welcome.

The camera crowded up to get a snap.

"Now please, please," she said, "don't come too close. It's awfully hard to look pleasant so early in the morning."

As Lady Astor passed into the station corridor the cheers from the crowd mingled with the strains of "Dixie."

TROOPS ARE ENGAGED IN BATTLE TWELVE MILES SOUTH OF PEKING; REPORT CASUALTY LIST IS HEAVY

PEKING, May 1.—Wu Pei Fu's drive for Peking was vigorously resumed in the vicinity of Chang Sin Tien, 13 miles south of the capital, yesterday afternoon, Chihilites attacking gallantly and striving to turn both of the enemy's flanks. Thte Fengtieners under Chang Tso-Lin at first were handicapped by a shortage of ammunition, but staved off the attacks until the supplies were brought up from Fengtai. The Chihilites were unable to make headway against the opposition and eventually retired to Lihiho, 15 miles southwest, last night.

The casualties of the Fengtieners were severe and the Chang Sin Tien hospital is filled with wounded.

There has been brisk fighting, also, on the Hun river, 40 miles south of the capitol, General Lin's forces being driven from the town.

BOTH SIDES CONTINUE TO BRING UP REINFORCEMENTS

TIENTSIN, CHINA, May 2.—The commanders of the northern and central armies which are at grips along the line extending from this port to Peking continue to bring up reinforcements, ignoring President Hsu Shis Chang's proclamation demanding that they cease fighting and withdraw their troops.

General Chang Tso-Lin, military governor of Mukden, commanding the northern forces, is in complete control of the Peking-Mukden railway zone.

NON-INTERFERENCE POLICY IS ADHERED TO BY JAPAN

By Associated Press.

TOKIO, May 2.—Japan, according to the foreign office, is adhering to her policy of non-interference in China and will take no action in connection with present disturbed condition in that country without consultation with the powers, especially Great Britain and the United States, if action seems necessary, and will observe the agreement not to supply either faction with arms and ammunition.

MILITARY REPORT ON DEATH OF BECK FOUND INCOMPLETE

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The report of the military board at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, which investigated the death of Lieut. Col. Paul Ward Beck, was found "incomplete in some respects" by the judge advocate general, and has been returned to the post commander, Brig. Gen. Hearnest Hinds, for such action as he may deem proper, Secretary Weeks announced today.

Mr. Weeks declined to discuss the finding of the board or to say whether they might be submitted to the civil authorities of Oklahoma with a view to reopening the case. He indicated that the department would take no action in the matter until the investigation had been completed.

MANY QUESTIONS OF IMPORTANCE BEFORE CHURCH CONFERENCE

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., May 2.—Questions of particular interest to Southern Methodists were considered today at a conference preliminary to the 18th general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, which convenes tomorrow.

The conference is the legislative branch of the church and will be in session about three weeks. Several hundred delegates and visitors already have arrived and indications are the conference will be one of the most important in recent history of the church.

Questions relating to matters in the border sections and western territory were among the preliminary discussions, which also included subjects of education and extension of mission fields. Specific recommendations are to be made to the general conference.

The changing of the name of the church is scheduled to be considered at the general conference.

There are approximately 300 delegates, an equal number of preachers and laymen, this being at least 50 more than members of any previous conference. Bishop E. R. Hendricks of Kansas City is the senior bishop of the church. He is in feeble health and probably will not be present. Bishop W. A. Candler of Atlanta will preside at the opening session and Bishop James Atkins of Nashville will read the "address of the bishop."

BYRD IS COMMANDER OF DISABLED VETERANS FOR STATE OF TEXAS

WACO, TEXAS, May 2.—The disabled American veterans, in convention here today, elected the following officers:

State comamnder, John H. Byrd, San Antonio; vice-commander, L. E. Baily, Bryan; treasurer, J. D. Gardner, Waco; chaplain, Allen B. Williams, Waco. A resolution endorsing S. C. Kile, manager of the fourteenth district of the veteran's bureau at Dallas. The commander will appoint the adjutant later.

The convention selected Dallas for next meeting place in 1923.

LEVEE ENGINEERS CONTINUE EFFORTS TO COMBAT FLOOD

NEW ORLEANS, LA., May 2.—Levee engineers and the thousands of government and volunteer workers continued to take advantage of the slight decline in flood levels in the lower sections of the Mississippi river today strengthening the laves against another flood crest expected within the next few days.

Relief organizations meanwhile continued work among the thousands of flood suffers in the stricken areas of Louisiana and Mississippi who are now being being forced in many cases to abandon houses in which they had attempted to stay despite the inundation, especially in the Black river zone, where the flood continues to deepen at outlying points. Shortage of food and shelter at Harrisonburg, the principal relief camp for that section, presented an even more serious problem today with 1,000 more refugees reported en route there.

FORM ORGANIZATION TO FIGHT CENTRALIZATION OF POWER IN THE U. S.

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—Formation of an organization to fight centralization of power in the federal government, was announced here today. The purpose of the organization, it was explained, is to curb the power of the federal government by constitutional levying of taxes upon the people except in case of war or to retire war debts.

The organization also shall work for a "return to the limited government as established by the fathers," it was stated.

The organization shall be nonpartisan and known as the "American Centralization League," it was explained.

The initial membership is largely from the St. Louis Bar association and it is planned to interest bar associations in other cities in the movement and obtain their cooperation in enlisting the assistance of state legislatures.

Thomas S. Landron, former circuit judge of St. Louis, is chairman of the organization, Sterling E. Edmonds, a local lawyer, is vice chairman, and Raymond McNally, vice president of the National Bank of Commerce of St. Louis, is treasurer.

CASE AGAINST THE DOMINION OIL CO. HAS BEEN REOPENED

NEW YORK, May 2.—Supreme Court Justice Wasservogel today issued an order requiring William C. Weelbrod to show cause tomorrow why a $2,819,000 verdict obtained against M. G. Collins as president of the Dominion Oil company of Texas, should not be set aside.

Counsel for Collins, who asked the order, told the court the judgment had been taken on the ground of complaint in a suit after the court of appeals had directed that an amended compaint be filed and served.

The litigation grew out of a proposed amalgamation of oil land leases in Texas and Louisiana in which Weelbrod alleged breach of contract by the Dominion Oil company.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL TO AID FLOOD AREAS

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Appropriation of $1,000,000 for the relief of sufferers in the flooded areas of the Mississippi valley is provided in a bill reported favorably to the house today by its agricultural committee. The measure introduced by Representative Dennison, republican, Illinois, will be rushed through the house and senate. Leaders have also promised to give it immediate consideration.

Expenditure of the fund would be handled by the secretary of agriculture, who would be authorized to use it for the purchase of grain seed for distribution to farmers whose crops were destroyed, or distribute cash to destitute farmers, and for reconstruction work in the stricken districts.

MOTION PICTURES BY RADIO ARE PROBABLE

BOSTON, May 2. — Motion pictures transmitted by radio are not possible, but probable, said L. C. Porter, president of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers, in an address at the organization's convention yesterday.

AUTHORITIES TAKE A HAND IN CHURCH AFFAIR AT LAWTON

CIVIL COURT OF INQUIRY BEING CONDUCTED BY THE COUNTY ATTORNEY.

CRIMINAL CHARGES ARE EXPECTED AS A RESULT

Thirty Persons Are to Be Subpoenaed in Connection With Investigation.

LAWTON, OKLA., May 2.—The Lawton Presbyterian church affairs got outside the church's control today.

County authorities took a hand.

A civil court of inquiry was under way directed by County Attorney Fletcher Riley, who announced he would go to the bottom of the whole dissention to determine the identity of three men who last Saturday night abducted the pastor, the Rev Thomas J. Irwin, and threw him in a ditch beside a road outside Lawton, half conscious and secudely tied and gagged.

The county attorney declared he would inquire into every phase of the case. Filing of criminal charges will probably be a result of the investigation, he said.

He started his inquiry today by preparing subpoenas for about 30 persons who had been suspended from Pastor Irwin's church. They were reinstated by the church session, or executive board, with the sanction of Mr. Irwin, but have been aligned against the minister in the movement to have him expelled from the pulpit of Lawton on formal charges drawn up by the governing El Reno presbytery.

A marriage performed by Mr. Irwin in a bathing pool, church movie exhibition, and his funeral services over the late Jake L. Hamon at Ardmore more than a year ago, are some of the seed from which the turmoil grew

ASK A REVOCATION OF CHARTER OF RAILROADS

OMAHA, NEB., May 2.—Revocation of the charters of the railroads alleged to be defaulting in wage agreements with their employes and government operation of such railroads are asked in resolutions adopted at a meeting here last night of 500 railway shop employes at which H E Yates, chairman of the Federated Shop Crafts, presided.

DELEGATES ARRIVE FOR METHODIST CONFERENCE

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., May 2.—Several hundred delegates had arrived today to attend the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, which convenes here Wednesday. They come from all parts of the south, including Los Angeles, Baltimore, Dallas, Birmingham and many other cities.

GOVERNMENT IS TO RUSH INVESTIGATION INTO COAL INDUSTRY

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Investigation by the commerce department into underlying difficulties in the coal industries, such as intermittency of employment and irregularity of production, is being expedited, it was learned today, with a view to securing data which might be used in the proposed administration plan for reorganizing the entire industry.

Hint of the administration plans for meeting the coal strike situation, as divulged today in high official circles, indicated that they did not consider any specific proposal for the settlement of the present miners and operators controversy, but rather were concerned with the remedying of fundamentals underlying the general coal situation

ORVILLE BULLINGTON PETITION WITH 700 NAMES NOW ON FILE

AUSTIN, May 2.—Secretary of State Staples today received a petition requesting that the name of Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls be placed on the official ballot of the election of a congressman from the Thirteenth district to succeed the late Lucian W Parrish. The election is to be held on May 13. The petition had 700 signatures on it.

Mr. Staples said that Mr Bullington's name would be placed on the ballot.

THIRTEEN BRANCHES OF BANK OF IRELAND ARE RAIDED MONDAY

LONDON, May 2.—Thirteen branches of the Bank of Ireland were raided by the dissident forces of the Irish republican army yesterday, late reports adding those at Ballibrobe and Claremorris, county Mayo, to the list.

The sums taken were not stated in four of the cases, but according to reports here the others yielded nearly 100,000 pounds sterling. The raiders gave receipts for the amounts taken. The Dublin correspondent of the Daily Mail says bands of youths have begun an organized campaign in western Ireland to seize the country houses and some of the owners have arrived in Dublin. Railroads were cut and trains held up at three places yesterday.

A dispatch to the Times said the independent forces at Rapahoe, County Donoghally, have been heavily reinforced from Cork and have commandeered several buildings, seizing the food in shops.

FRANCE IS INVITED TO SUBMIT OBSERVATIONS ON PAYMENT OF DEBT

PARIS, May 2.—The American debt funding commission has informed the French government it will be glad to receive the government's observations on what it had to offer concerning the payment of the interest on the debt to the United States and the amortization of capital

The matter will be referred to the minister of finance, who is expected to prepare a reply to submit to the cabinet for its approval

NOTICE SENT RECENTLY TO ALL DEBTOR NATIONS

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Notice was sent recently through the state department to all of the allied nations which the United States made war loans that the American debt refunding commission was prepared to enter into negotiations looking toward conversion of the debts into long term securities

Formal replies to the notices have been received, so far as could be learned today, from none of the nations, but Great Britain has indicated informally a willingness to proceed in that direction, and it is possible that preliminary negotiations will be entered into with that government within a fortnight

No Evidence That Victims of Masked Band Violated Law

LOS ANGELES, May 2.—Federal officers have investigated the Inglewood home and winery of Fiedel and Mathias Liduayen alleged by members of a band of masked and armed men, who raided it a week ago Saturday to be bootleggers and found no evidence of violations of the prohibition laws they declared.

HOME-MADE PLAY WILL BE GIVEN BY SENIORS THIS YEAR

A new idea in amateur theatricals is to be carried out this year by the high school senior class in presenting its annual spring play contrary to the usual custom of offering an established production of known merit, but also well known expense, the seniors this year will present a play written and staged in its entirety by members of the class

The production is billed under the doubtful title of "The Lucky Dog," and is a modernized burlesque on Shakespear's classic "The Merchant of Venice." Gage McDermitt is credited with having written most of the lines, though some aid was rendered by Polly Clark and Edward Kadane. All three will have important parts in the finished play which will be presented at the Wichita theatre May 17

The immortal "Shylock the Jew" finds his modern counterpart in "Skyrock" while "Portia" will be represented locally by "Portion." Mr. Shakespear's "Antonio" has been renamed "Antipathy" and "Bassanio" will appear as "Bananio." The "Prince of Morocco" and the "Prince of Arragon," the villains, become respectively the "Prince of Tabasco" and the "Prince of Paragon," while "Launcelot Gobbo" is degraded to "Launch-a-Lot Gob" and his father "Old Gobbo" becomes "More Gob"

"Jamaica Ginger," representing "Jessica," "Peerkiss" as "Nerissa," "Tubad" as "Tubal" and various other minor characters will complete the cast. Those students who are to appear in the play are Mary Smith, Katherine Hopper, Wallace Bright, Mortimer Clopton, Lillian Randle, Helen Snider, Gage McDermott, Polly Clark, Edward Kadane, Carroll Johnson, Clyde Robinson, Darold Kahn, Barton Perry, Robert McAbee and others

Miss Jeanita Kinsey is directing the play and all other work incident to its production is being carried out by the high school pupils. An admission charge of 5 cents for any seat in the house will be made the "first come, first served" policy having been adopted

THREE KILLED WHEN LOCOMOTIVE ON THE B. & O. BLOWS UP

MYERSDALE, PA., May 2.—Three trainmen were killed and a fast freight on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad was wrecked at Fairhope, seven miles east here early today, when a locomotive blew up

The locomotive, of the most powerful on the B & O system, was hauling a fast freight from Cumberland, Md., to Pittsburgh. Without warning the boiler let go and all members of the crew on that portion of the train were killed. Ten cars immediately following the engine were thrown from the track and, catching fire were destroyed

THREE TRADE TRIPS OF TWO DAYS EACH ARE TO BE TAKEN

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND BUSINESS COUNCIL COMMITTEES MEET.

ONE FOR EACH OF MONTHS THIS SUMMER

To Cover All of City's Trade Territory—B. J. Bean Named General Chairman.

Three trade trips, of two days' duration each, will be taken by local business men this summer, if plans adopted Tuesday morning are carried out. The trade excursion committee of the chamber of commerce and the special trade trip committee of the business council held a joint meeting Tuesday and decided to plan three trips, to be held June 6 and 7, July 11 and 12, August 8 and 9.

The points to be visited will be definitely decided upon this week, and the sub-committee having that in charge will report at another meeting scheduled for 10 a. m. Friday. It is planned to cover all portions of this city's trade territory in the three trips. The trips will be made by train, with one overnight stop on each trip.

B J. Bean was named as general trade trip chairman at Tuesday's meeting, and he appointed chairmen for various sub-committees, which will be held responsible for the work assigned to them. The sub-committee chairmen are: Band, Eugene Liepold; itinerary, J W. Chatham Jr.; properties and equipment, Jack Barnard; advance work, John W. Thomas; sale of tickets, B. F. Johnson; commissary, E S Goodner; parades and formations, Horrace Robbins; program and stunts, R. E Shepherd

It is hoped to obtain general and whole-souled participation in these trips by representatives of all local business houses

Present at Tuesday's meeting were E. S. Goodner, J W Chatham Jr., R. E Penick, Eugene Liepold, B. J Bean, George Gutsman, B F Johnson, John W Thomas, Horrace Robbins, Jack Barnard, John W Bradley, H M. Harrison and W M Wheeler of the West Texas chamber of commerce

ATTRACTIVE WOMAN IS HELD FOR OBSERVATION, BELIEVE SHE IS INSANE

NEW YORK, May 2.—Mildred Preston, 18 years old, bobbed haired and attractive, who was found sitting in an automobile in a garage in Flushing yesterday, is mentally unbalanced and will be placed under observation, according to physicians who examined her. Led to a weird vigil at St Michael's cemetery, Flushing, by "spirit voices," the young girl insists that she was employed by Vanderbilt as a maid although Mr. Vanderbilt and his butler declare that no one answering her description had been among the Vanderbilt servants

PROPOSED PICKETING FOR THE CHILDREN'S CRUSADE WILL HAVE NO INFLUENCE

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The gauntlet was thrown down today by the white house to the leaders of the children's crusade to obtain the release of war law violators from prison the declaration being made that President Harding would in no wise be influenced by the picketing program of the American Civil Liberties union, or organizers of the crusade

The president was said to regard the delegation of children and women as organized for publicity purposes, but feels the greatest sympathy for the children whom he would welcome to the white house under ordinary circumstances.

WIVES AND CHILDREN TO RESORT TO PICKETING

NEW YORK, May 2.—Wives and children will resort to picketing the white house in a renewed plea to President Harding to release the 114 men still in federal prisons serving sentences imposed during the war, it was announced today by officials of the American Civil Liberties union

Each day they will parade to the executive mansion, the senate and the department of justice, bearing banners.

CLEVER FORGERY TAKES $463 OUT OF FIRM'S FUNDS

A clever and practically undetectable forgery netted some person $463 and a local automobile business firm is out exactly that same amount.

In all a total of seven checks were passed through three local business firms, the aggregate sum of which was $463. The checks used were the checks of the firm taken out of the check book and a protector used. The protector used was either the same one or the same kind that is used by the firm.

The signature of the treasurer of the company is nearly a perfect imitation and in fact was so cleverly done that it slipped through the banks without creating a bit of suspicion. The forged checks were discovered Monday when the firm received its bank statements.

ARREST PROPRIETOR OF PICTURE SHOW WHEN HE REFUSED CENSOR A PASS

WACO, TEXAS, May 2.—A. H Hamler, one of the proprietors of a moving picture theater here, was arrested today when he refused to admit Mrs. J. H Hutcherson, the city censor, without pay. Hamler gave bond and will have a hearing in the city court tomorrow. Recently former City Judge R. H. Kingsbury declared the censor ordinance unconstitutional. The present case will be tried by J. D. Willis, the new judge.

Indian Tells Judge Wife Likes Variety Too Much for Him

CHICAGO, May 2.—Charging Hawk, a full-blooded Sioux Indian, told Judge Adams of the court of domestic relations he had been in the army four years and served as a policeman on the Sioux reserve for four years, but that he had never had so much excitement in his life as the time since he got married.

"My wife likes variety too much for me," he told the judge. "She had been married four times—to a German, a Mexican, a Chinaman and then me. I can't keep up with her. She had too much experience."

Mrs. Ethel Charging Hawk declared she hadn't received a dollar for the support of herself or her two children—both by former marriages—since she married the Sioux Judge Adams took the domestic difficulties under advisement.

Keeping A Rosy Complexion

And A Clear Smooth Skin What Millions of Women Do.

Medical science says that each one of the billions of red blood corpuscles in your blood stream must have iron or your blood becomes pale, thin and watery. Your lips and cheeks also lose their color, then your stomach, kidneys, liver and heart become weakened, your intestines do not act properly, poisons may be absorbed into your system and your skin thereby becomes rough and muddy looking; dark circles may appear under your eyes, your cheek and facial muscles and tissues shrink, hollows may appear, and you may even look several years older than you actually are. To say the least, the freshness of your youthful beauty is gone.

It is estimated that at least one woman out of every three you meet lacks 100% iron in her blood and is more or less effected thereby. In many cases in addition to the loss of their beauty, they become weak, nervous, unstrung and may be afflicted with melancholy or the blues, or suffer the terrible terrors of nerve force exhaustion.

Nuxated Iron is guaranteed in every case to furnish your body with true red blood food which your blood must have for you to be strong, healthy and vigorous. It is the iron in your blood that puts the color in your cheeks, helps clear up your skin and give the ruddy glow of health to your complexion. It has been used by millions of women. Get a bottle today, take it for two weeks, and if you have not joined the ranks of the thousands who have obtained most surprising health, strength and energy from the use of Nuxated Iron, the manufacturers will promptly refund your money.

She could eat anything

without indigestion or sleeplessness

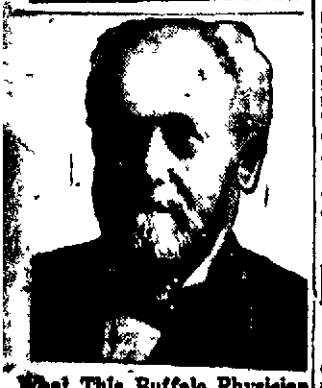
For a time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank.

She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward.

Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. Appetite is always kept normal and you are protected against indigestion.

Add 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your daily diet. You will find that your whole digestive system is greatly benefited. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.



What This Buffalo Physician Has Done for Humanity

The picture which appears here of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., was taken in 1910. As a young man Dr. Pierce practiced medicine in Pennsylvania and was known far and wide for his great success in alleviating disease. He early moved to Buffalo and put up in ready-to-use form, his Golden Medical Discovery, the well-known tonic for the blood. This strength-builder is made from a formula which Dr. Pierce found most effective in diseases of the blood. It contains no alcohol and is an extract of native roots with the ingredients clearly stated on the wrapper. Good blood, vim, vigor and vitality are sure to follow if you take this alterative Extract. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery clears up pimples and annoying eruptions and tends to keep the complexion fresh and clear. This Discovery corrects the disordered conditions in a sick stomach, aids digestion, acts as a tonic and purifies the blood. Write Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., and receive medical advice without charge. All druggists sell Discovery in tablets or liquid. Send 10c for trial package. (adv.)

...ING WILL HALT ...TH FINISHING OF ...RESENT PROJECTS

...D IS EXHAUSTED—ELEVENTH AND BURNETT TO BE LAST.

...TY TO TAX NOTES TO REPLETE ITS TREASURY

Get Out Of Debt That Way, Council Is Told—Filtration Plant Is Discussed.

No more paving projects will be undertaken by the city when Eleventh and Burnett are finished, it was decided at the council meeting Monday night. The city's share of the cost of these two streets will exhaust the remaining paving money, and in view of the general condition of city finances, the council decided to end the paving program when these streets are finished.

Property owners between Eleventh and Twelfth on Austin, who wanted a block of paving to connect with Eleventh street were advised that the city can't afford even a small job like that one.

The city can materially improve its financial condition, Tax Assessor Anderson told the council, by taxing vendors' lien notes owned in this city. Such notes are already tagable, but the task of getting them rendered has been greater than anybody cared to tackle heretofore.

Can Get Out of Debt.

Mr. Anderson made the interesting statement that the city could get out of debt this year by taxing these notes, and the council indicated that its policy would be to tax them; whereupon Mr. Anderson said that some additional help would have to be hired in order to check up and trace the thousands of notes held in this city.

The council discussed the filtration plant situation without taking any action. Utilities Commissioner Stayton said it would cost about $25,000 to install such a plant and the additional pumps needed, and said the water department could take care of that expense out of its earnings, provided the council didn't take those earnings for other purposes. Mayor Collier said the plant was badly needed, but that he thought the city might be able to get along without it, in some way, in view of finances. No decision was reached. The council did not take up the Clay county highway matter Monday night

The discussion of the city's finances developed the fact that the tax rate this year must be substantially the same as for last. While the city has about 32 cents per $100 to go to reach the maximum allowed to levy the limit would provide money only for special interest and sinking funds where it is not needed; on the other hand, if the total valuation is not as much as last year, there will not be enough revenue in other bond accounts to take care of interest and sinking funds.

The council exercised a little more economy by providing that downtown street lights shall be turned off at 2 a. m.

Protest Is Considered.

The protest from the park board against reducing the salary of Park Superintendent J. E Dobson was disposed of by letting the city's part of the salary stand and providing that Dobson may devote a part of his time to school grounds, if the school board wishes to employ him for such work

The city tax assessor and collector was authorized to employ a sewer rent collector on a percentage basis to clean up these collections before that business is turned over to the water department.

Supervision of sewer department work was made a duty of George Dobson, street superintendent, by order of the council.

The council authorized Mayor Collier to attend the meeting of the League of Texas Municipalities at Waxahachie this month.

REPORT STEADY PROGRESS ON WEST VERNON WELL

VERNON, TEXAS, May 2—West Vernon well officials report steady progress at making a hole on their holdings about three miles west of town, and are reticent with information of a specific nature. Much local interest centers in the operations, and many citizens are of the impression that a real future may be expected from the West Vernon holdings.

Caving in the hole has apparently been overcome No hint is given by operators concerning where pay sand is expected.

The Battle Desert

Again one of those agonizing waits, racking to the two men whose future depended largely upon the happenings atop the range. Far on the other side, fighting slowly upward, was a freight train loaded with the necessary materials of a large sawmill

"Guess it's all off," came at last. "The general superintendent in Denver's on the wire. Says to back up everything to Tolliffer, including the plows, and give up the ghost."

"Give it up?" Houston stared blandly at the telegrapher. "But that's not railroading!"

"I know. I'll call Denver."

He turned to the key and hammered doggedly. Only soggy deadness answered. Theline was gone!

CHAPTER XVI

"It'd take a guy with a diving suit to find some of them wires, I guess," the operator hazarded, as he finally ceased his efforts and reached for his coat and hat and snowshoes You fellows are going to sleep in town tonight, ain't you?

There was little else to do They fought their way to the rambling boarding house.

Morning brought no relief. The storm was worse, and they faced drifts waist high at the doorway

Two hours later, the agent once more at his dead key, Ba'tiste turned to Houston

"Eet is no use here" he announced. "We must get to camp and assemble the men to help those who are not fortunate. There is death in this storm."

Again with their waist-belt guide lines, they started forth, to bend against the storm in a struggle and at last to reach the squat, snowed-in buildings of camp There, Ba tiste assembled the workmen in the bunk house

"There are greater things than this now," he announced "We want the strong men—who will go back with us to Tabernacle, and who will be willing to take the risk to help the countryside. Eet is the danger ahead. How many of you will go?"

One after another they reached for their snowshoes, silent men who acted, rather than spoke

Guide lines were affixed Huddled, clumsy figures of white, one following the other, made the gruelling trip back to Tabernacle Already the reports were beginning to come in, brought by storm weakened, blizzard-battered men, of houses where the roofs had crashed beneath the weight of snow, of lost ranchmen, of bawling cattle drifting before the storm—to death It was the beginning of a two-weeks' siege of a white inferno.

The whole world was one great, bleak thing of dreary white—a desert in which there was life only that there might be death, where the battle for existence continued only as a matter of instinct

And over this bleak desert went the men of the west country, silent, frost-burned men, their lips cracked from the cut of wind, their eyes blood-red with inflammation, struggling here and there with a pack of food upon their backs that they might reach some desolate home where there were women and children; or stopping to pull and tug at a snow-trapped steer and by main effort, drag him into a barren spot where the sweep of the gale had kept the ground fairly clear of snow.

A two-inch crust of snow formed over the main snowfall, permitting small sleds to be pulled behind struggling men; the world beneath had been frozen in, to give place to a new one above. And with that:

"It's open! It's open!" The shout came from the lips of the telegrapher, waving his arms as he ran from the tunnell that led to the stationhouse "It's open! I've had Rawlings on the wire!"

"Rawlings?" Houston had edged forward. "There's not a chance. Get Denver on the wire. Then take this message to every newspaper in the city.

"'Can't you help us? Please try to start campaign to force Crestline road to open the Pass. Women and children are starving here We have been cut off from the rest of the world for two weeks We need food—and coal. Road will not be open for four or five weeks more under ordinary circumstances. This will mean death to many of us here, the wiping out of a great timber and agricultural country, and a blot on the history of Colorado Help us—and we will not forget it

"'THE CITIZENS OF THE WEST COUNTRY'"

"Sounds good" The telegrapher was busily putting it on the wire. Then a wait of hours. Then the wire clattered forth a message. He jumped

"It's from the papers in Denver!" he shouted "A joint message. They've taken up the fight!"

The snows still swirled the storms still came and went During this period of uncertainty Houston met Ba'tiste Renaud, returning from the lake region, to find him raging

"Is eet that the world is all unjust?" he roared I am the mad enough to tear them apart!"

"Who? What's gone wrong?"

"Ah! I pass today the Blackburn mill They have the saw going—they keep at work, when there are the women and the babies who strave, when there are the cattle who are dying, when there is the country that is like a broken thing They know that we do not get our machinery! They have think they have a chance—for the contract!"

It brought Houston to a sharp knowledge of conditions They had given, that the rest of the country might not suffer. Their enemies had worked on, fired with the new hope that the machinery necessary to carry out Houston's contract would not arrive in time.

A shout had come from the distance Faintly through the sifting snow they could see figures running Then the words came:

"They're going to open the road! They're going to open the road!"

A message bearer came from the station "It's the M P & S. L. According to the message, the papers hammered the stuffing out of the Crestline road. The other road saw a great chance to step in. It's landing the men and the rolling stock. They're going to open another fellow's road, for the publicity and the good will that's in it."

Two pictures flashed across Houston's brain; one of a snowy sawmill with the force working day and night, when all the surrounding country cried for help; another of carload after carload of necessary machinery, snow-covered ,ice-bound, on a sidetrack at Tolliffer, with the whole, horrible, snow-clutched fierceness of the Continental Divide between it and its goal

He was looking into the drawn haggard features of an unconscious woman.

In the night he awoke, again thinking of it. Every possible hand that could swing a pick or jam a crowbar against dredging ice would be needed up there. A mad desire began to come over him; a strange, impelling scheme took hold of his brain. They would need men—men who would not be afraid, men who would be willing to slave day and night if necessary to the success of the adventure. Long before dawn he rose and scribled a note to Ba'tiste Renaud:

"I'm going over the range I can't wait. They may need me. I'm writing this, because you would try to dissuade me if I told you personally Don't be afraid for me—I'll make it somehow. I've got to go. It's easier than standing by.

"HOUSTON."

Then, his snowshoes affixed, he went out into the night. The storm clouds were thick on the sky again, the snow was dashing about him once more. He floundered aimlessly, striving by short sallies to recover the path from which the storm was driving him.

Dawn found him at last, floundering hopelessly in snow-screened woods, going on toward he knew not where.

A half hour, then he stopped Fifty feet away, almost covered by the changing snows, a small cabin showed faintly. His numbed hands banged at the door, but there came no answer. He shouted, still no sound came from within.

The door yielded, and climbing over the pile of snow at the step, Houston guided his snowshoes through the narrow door, blinking in the half-light in an effort to see about him There was a stove, but the fire was dead At the one little window, the curtain was drawn tight and pinned at the sides to the sash. There was a bed—and the form of some one beneath the covers.

Houston called again, but still there came no answer. He was looking into the drawn, haggard features of an unconscious woman, the eyes half-open, yet unseeing, one emaciated hand grasped about something that was shielded by the covers Houston forced himself even closer. He touched the hand. He called

"Agnes!"

The eyelids moved slightly it was the only evidence of life, save the labored, irregular breathing Then the hand moved, clutchingly Slowly trembling Houston turned back an edge of the blankets—and stood aghast

On her breast was a baby—dead!

CHAPTER XVII

Soon water was boiling Hot cloths went to the woman's head, quietly, reverently, Barry had taken the still, small child from the tightly clenched arm and covered it, on the little table And with the touch of the small, lifeless form, the resent which had smoldered in Houston's heart for months seemed to disappear

"I'm sorry—Agnes Don't be afraid of me. I'll get help for you"

"Don't"

There was the dullness that comes when grief has reached the breaking point "Dead. It died—yesterday morning"

Houston could say nothing in answer Quietly he turned to the stove red-hot now and with snow water began the making of gruel from the supplies on the shelf

Forcing himself to the subject, Houston asked a question

"Where is he"

"Who"' Sudden fright had come into the woman's eyes

"Your husband'

CALOMEL MAY TURN ON YOU NEXT TIME

Next Dose You Take May Salivate and Start a Week of Trouble

Calomel is mercury; quicksilver. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.—(Adv.)

Ward's Orange-CRUSH

Delicious because made from the finest and purest ingredients obtainable. Tremendous volume alone makes the price so low. Be sure the genuine is served to you. Sold in bottles, and also at fountains.

The three "Crush" drinks get their flavors from the delicate fruit oils pressed from the fresh outer skins of oranges, lemons or limes, to which are added juices from these fruits, cane sugar, U. S. certified food color, carbonated water, and citric acid—the natural acid of oranges, lemons and limes.

LOVING CUPS PRESENTED AT ALL-DAY MEETING OF M. E. MISSION MEMBERS

Two loving cups—one in the actuality and one in the "spirit"—were presented at the all-day meeting of the M E Mission society, south, Monday by Rev Dr Knickerbocker, the two cups going to Mesdames F P. Warren and O B. Womack The cups represented Dr Knickerbocker's appreciation of the splendid service of the two mission members in their church work for the past few months. Including their assistance to him during the "win one" visiting campaign One cup was offered by the pastor, but as Mrs Womack and Mrs Warren tied in their records, Dr Knickerbocker stated that two cups would be given, one to each

The morning was spent by those not engaged in the preparation of dinner in social chat and fancy work. Mrs Womack's circle (four) serving the luncheon. The menu comprised chicken loaf, creamed peas and potatoes hot rolls and butter, coffee and ice cream In the afternoon Mrs D J Carithers presided over the business meeting Mother Hartsock leading the devotionals on the theme, Come Unto Me" During the business session a new Junior Missionary organization was sponsored with Mrs. Jim Young appointed to attend to the organization Reports were given from all departments and from each circle those from Mrs E B Gorsline of the social service committee and Mrs Grover Bullington of the cradle roll committee being especially interesting Around 2,000 calls to sick and strangers were reported for the month The circle attendance record was One 32 per cent, Two, 25 per cent, three, 18 per cent, and Four, 42 per cent

A feature treport was that given by Mrs C B Haynie, delegate to the recent missionary conference, which was very interesting and inspirational.

MRS. ALVAH H McCREARY, of Philadelphia, who says nothing she could say for Tanlac would be half good enough after the way this remarkable medicine has brought back her health.

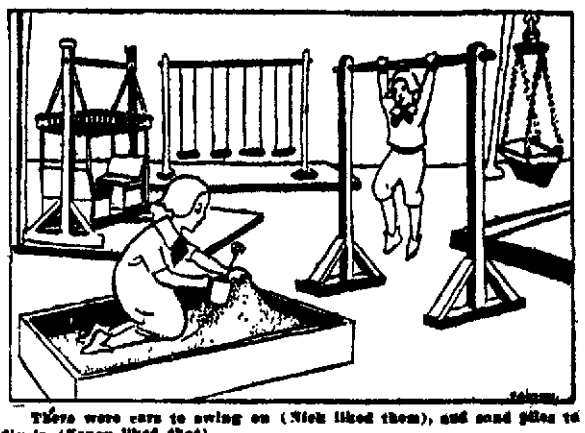
It is just glorious to have my health back, and in my opinion there is nothing I can say about Tanlac would be half good enough' said Mrs Alvah H McCreary, 1531 Locust St., Philadelphia Pa

'For two years I had all the miserable and agonizing symptoms that go with a bad case of stomach trouble Although I lived on the strictest kind of diet I suffered torture from indigestion and finally my whole system seemed to give way

"I certainly know how to appreciate the wonderful blessing of good health and I have such confidence in Tanlac that I wish it was in my power to put a bottle of it in the hands of every sick man woman and child so that they might take it and get well and strong as I have done'

Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug store in Electra by Tarleton Drug store, in Burkburnett by West End Drug Co, and by all leading druggists—adv.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
PLAYGROUND VALLEY
By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON



There were cars to swing on (Nick liked them), and sand piles to dig in (Nancy liked that).

The fifth one of the Seven Valleys was called Playground Valley When Nancy and Nick and the dove came to the top of the steep hill that led into it, the dove said, "I know how it is going to be here You'll want to try every swing and sliding board in the place, so there's no use of me staying I'll fly ahead and wait for you patiently on the other side

But we don't have to stop, even if we'd like to, said Nancy We can shut our eyes and go straight ahead"

'No' said the dove sadly "You think you will but you won't These things are all magic and will attract you against your will It's like the Five-and-ten-cent-store Mountain and the Valley of Puppy-Dogs Goodby now All the advice I can give you is to watch that you don't lose your Green Shoes and that you will try to come as soon as you can"

Away he flew but the magic had already begun to work and Nick was so interested in the things he saw around him, he scarcely heard what his little guide said.

If I were to tell you all the things that the Twins did in Playground Valley it would fill so much space that there wouldn't be room for another thing on this page. But I can tell you part of it.

To begin with, there were swings—rope swings with board seats, boat swings on chains, nice bench swings with roofs over the top, slat swings, big swings, little swings, high swings, low swings, swings that squeaked and swings that were quiet, double swings, single swings, red swings, blue swings, and all sorts of swings

Then there were sliding boards Some were steep, some were flat, some were high, some were low, and each one a barrel of fun

And there were bars to swing on (Nick liked them), and sandpiles to dig in (Nancy liked that), and seesaws, the best ever There were kites to fly and tops to spin skates to skate on and wheels to ride

"Oh, my" said Nancy suddenly "We've been an awful long time We'd better hurry on, Nick I hear the dove calling"

OUR FIRST YEAR
CHAPTER XXVIII—MY POPULAR MAN
By a Bride

Jack is a popular man and I am awfully proud of him He's handsome—he has manner—and more than that he has charm All the girls feel it And he doesn't seem to know

It's impossible to ignore the fact that being married doesn't keep people from flirting nowadays But my Jack moves among women as smoothly, as elegantly, as coldly as a king on a chess board The married girls can spend hours with him without making their men jealous

That has made us very popular for week-end motor trips I've welcomed these trips because we can't possibly afford a vacation so soon after our honeymoon

Jack has tried to show me that these week-end excursions cost as much as a vacation all by ourselves for he stands his share by taking the checks at restaurants and hotels

After Jack had figured a little, I hadn't the courage to tell him how much my motor togs have cost I bought the best things and had them charged The suit cost to fit it car was $50 We couldn't be seen at smart places with smart people unless we had spiffy clothes and mine are just as good as Mary Smith's although she spent twice as much as I My hat cost me only $15 and Mary's cost $37.50 I always try to be economical. One has to on our salary of $2500 a year

We could get along very nicely on our budget if it were not for our bills When the bill for my motor hat came I hated to show it to Jack He looked wearily tired and so I added that bill to the pile in my writing desk I remember I put it on top of the milk bill And life has moved so fast that I forgot all about those envelopes until they came in again the next month' it was annoying for then I had two milk bills which I ought to have paid out of my housekeeping money.

Business isn't going very well with Jack Commissions simply don't exist And so we are compelled to live on his salary somehow That's why I haven't let him know what I've had charged. I intend to as soon as my adorable davenport is paid for.

I know Jack will be perfectly lovely, as always, when I show him what has been necessary for me to buy.

Jack always understands, never glooms nor grouches, and so it's his feelings I worry most about. I think every bride should study her husband's feelings and not hurt them carelessly. Men are a lot more sensitive than some girls think and Jack is far more sensitive than most men

He likes to stick to his principles. Since he resolved not to break into his savings, the $1000 he put away before we were married, which he calls his wife's safety fund, I know he will manage somehow to get all my accounts balanced without disturbing his savings

FASHIONS
By LENORE

White is undoubtedly the elegant mode for summer wear, but clever dressmakers do not permit it to go unrelieved by some brilliant contrast. Poiret, for example, creates a striking garden party dress of white taffeta striped with green Drecoll embroiders the skirt of a stunning white crepe gown with small medallions of red, blue and gold, while Jenny, whose dresses are among the most beautiful and wearable each season, achieves enchanting effects with ornamental belts of ravishingly colored beads, braid and cunningly contrived leather petals to add color to her white dresses.

Charmingly individual is a design which offers an opportunity to those who favor black and white As the sketch indicates, the gown derives its inspiration from one of the newest ideas this season, the combination of a low neck with long flowing sleeves for evening wear. Crepe Marocain is used, with glistening jet for the shoulder supports and side trimming. The same gown has been shown in mauve with crystal beads

SURE HELP TO SICK WOMEN

Mrs. Baker, so much Benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Anxious to Help Others

Lebanon, Indiana.—"I was completely run down from women's troubles and stomach trouble and for a long time was hardly able to do my work. I had some friends who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they told me about it. I know what it has done for me and I recommend it to others, as I am sure it will be a great help to all sick women. It is a wonderful medicine, and I give you permission to use my testimonial and my photograph."—Mrs. EMMA BAKER, 810 S. East St., Lebanon, Indiana.

These letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound ought to convince women of the great worth of this medicine in the treatment of ailments to which they are often subject.

Mrs. Baker calls it "a wonderful medicine." If you are suffering from troubles women often have, or feel all run down, without any ambition or energy for your regular work, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a natural restorative and should help you.

DR. ADOLF LORENZ
PROF OF ORTHOPEDICS
VIENNA UNIVERSITY

My dear Mr. Kopp: December 30, 1921.

I have carefully examined the Nemo Corsets you submitted to me and find that the appliances which are attached to them are in various ways most ingeniously constructed for the purpose of giving relief, support and protection to the contained abdominal and pelvic organs. These corsets are of great importance to women due to their prophylactic curative and corrective properties, providing the lesions have not become chronic.

I consider that the most valuable qualities in these corsets are the combined services of producing symmetrical proportions, at the same time giving effective physical relief and comfort to women suffering with organic diseases to which the modern woman is prone.

It is the experience of the medical profession in general that mechanical devices which have to be prescribed for alleviative or curative purposes will not be used by women if they conflict with or destroy the natural symmetry of their figures. My study of the construction of Nemo Corsets has convinced me that their hygienic features blend harmoniously with a woman's natural form

I specially recommend some of these ingeniously constructed corsets for those women who have relaxed, stretched and weak abdominal muscles or walls, nephroptosis, (floating kidney) ptosed stomach and ptosis, or prolapse of any abdominal or pelvic organ, while other devices in Nemo Corsets are of immeasurable value to the stout woman with the abnormally large abdomen, which is heavy with adipose tissue. It seems to me that these corsets are particularly beneficial to that large class of women who are actively engaged in work which requires much physical exertion.

GERMANY AND RUSSIA PLAN TO TAKE CHINA IN TRIPLE ALLIANCE OPINION OF BERNARD M. BARUCH

THE NEXT "TRIPLE ALLIANCE"

Germany	208,780	65,000,000	100,000
Russia	8,420,000	136,000,000	600,000
China	4,300,000	400,000,000	1,500,000
Totals	12,938,780	601,000,000	2,200,000

By EDWARD M. THIERRY
(Copyright, 1922, by NEA Service, Inc All rights reserved. Republication prohibited anywhere in the world by NEA Service, Inc.)

NEW YORK, May 2.—What sort of dynamite is being manufactured at the Genoa conference?

What are its world dangers?

These questions were put to Bernard M. Baruch, noted financier and economist, chairman of the war industries board during the last year of the war, member of the supreme economic council, economic adviser for the American peace commission and American delegate on economics and reparation clauses of the treaty of Versailles.

Baruch spoke of the dangerous potentialties in the German-Russian treaty.

"This treaty," he said, "is the logical sequence of isolation of two nations made outcasts, first by America and second by Europe and largely by themselves.

"And China now is the logical ally of Germany and Russia. China is a neglected nation whose territory is held by others, by nations China cannot throw out."

The question was put as to the nature of the German-Russian combination and its effect if China joined.

"So far as men and material are concerned," Baruch said, "Germany and Russia would be as self-contained as any nation in the world, with the possible exception of America. Russia can produce any amount of foodstuffs, and possibly cotton. Germany can supply manufactured goods.

"If Russia became Germanized in a military and commercial way, it would mean a very dangerous alliance. With China in, this alliance would quickly come into conflict with the four-power treaty made at Washington. There would be Japan to consider. Almost anything might happen then—in spite of the four-power treaty."

The possible Germanization of Russia and the likelihood of the German-Russian treaty growing into a military alliance were put into questions.

"Germany can put Russia to work," said Baruch. "That would make an unbeatable combination, from bothwan economic and a military standpoint. It would be a combination of brains, determination, man power and materials.

"I do not believe, however, that a Germanization of Russia amounting to anything can come until there is personal initiative again in Russia—that is, a system of individual effort opposed to the communistic idea. Whether that is now, as has been reported, I cannot say."

The whole trouble, Baruch points out, recalling his own prophetic words of 15 months ago, traces back to the failure to fix the amount of reparations Germany should pay at a reasonable sum.

"Everything that has happened proves it," he said. "It proves that until reparations are fixed sensibly no world conference can be a success, that disturbing things like the German-Russian treaty will crop up.

"None of the economic questions can be settled at Genoa. Lloyd George's program for a 10-year non-aggression holiday would have to consider this question: What will the allies, particularly France, do if Germany doesn't pay? For under the treaty of Versailles France has a right to move into Germany to enforce the claims!"

America helped to make outcast nations of Germany and Russia, in Baruch's opinion, by withdrawing from the league of nations. Europe made it worse, he says, "by continuing to impose impossible conditions, thus further isolating Germany."

"The more unreasoning the world continues to be the worse it will be," he said. "Grave world dangers cannot be avoided until a safe ground of good faith based upon reason is found. Nothing can be gained when fear and hatred are the moving causes; we must be governed by reason and hope."

THOMAS DISCUSSES FARM PROBLEMS IN ADDRESS AT TULIA

TULIA, SWISHER COUNTY, Texas, May 2.—"The problem of the farmers is an American problem. The prosperity of the country is inseparably interwoven with the prosperity of the farmers. They represent more than one-third of the country's population. They cannot suffer without that suffering being felt by every interest and industry in the land. We are learning the solidarity of human society," said Cullen F. Thomas, candidate for the United States senate, here today.

"The plight of the farmers of America has been a national tragedy for two years. Theodore Price tells us that a city bootblack stands a better chance to support his family than the average farmer who owns 160 acres of land.

"I am in full sympathy with the general program, except the tariff question, of the senate farm bloc. Were I a member of the senate today I would co-operate with the progressives in both parties, who are voting shoulder to shoulder for the relief of the farmers of America. The Harding administration frowns upon the farm bloc. I predict that the American people at the ballot box will frown upon the Harding administration."

ADOPT A NEW FORM OF PERMIT FOR WITHDRAWAL OF LIQUOR FROM BOND

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Adoption of a new form of permit for the withdrawal of liquor from bond and new prescription blanks designed to eliminate the possibility of either document being counterfeited, was announced yesterday by Commissioner Haynes. They are printed on specially designed specially water marked paper, with the seal of the treasury department and the word "prohibition" water marked on each.

A still further protection against counterfeit he declared the prohibition bureau has adopted a machine which resembles a check protector which will impress upon each withdrawal permit the amount of liquor to be leased, to prevent their being raised after issuance.

OKLAHOMA GOVERNOR HAS REFUSED TO HONOR MURPHY REQUISITION

MARSHALL, MICH., May 2.—Sheriff H. E. Lucas returned from Oklahoma City without John F. Murphy, Governor Robertson refusing to honor Governor Groesbeck's extradition papers. Murphy was wanted here on a charge of violating the blue sky law in the sale of oil leases. After a conference in Oklahoma City Saturday, Governor Robertson said he believed Murphy acted in good faith and had complied with the Michigan blue sky laws.

MAN GOES TO JAIL FOR PERIOD OF THIRTY DAYS

CHIEF ANNOUNCES SEVERAL CHANGES IN POLICE FORCE

Numerous changes in the city police department personnel were made public Tuesday by Chief of Police J. W. McCormick and Police Commissioner J. B. Fitts.

Charley Bebout, veteran peace officer who has held positions with the city and county for several years, was appointed Monday afternoon as night sergeant, succeeding Dave May. The resignation of J. E. Glenn, city detective on the night shift, was handed to Chief McCormick Monday night. The vacancy left by Mr Glenn's leaving was immediately filled by the appointment of W. S. Johnson, former detective who has served as house officer for the Kemp hotel during the past year.

Mr. Glenn, who is a candidate for sheriff, will assume duties as the Kemp detective immediately, this position being such as to permit his campaigning actively for the office.

The only other change thus far recorded was the naming of Lenley Humphries as day sergeant. Mr Humphries has been serving on the day detective force and his change to the sergeant's desk was necessitated by the fact that Chief McCormick intends devoting much of his time to outside investigations, thus requiring some one to look after the office details of the department.

It has been indicated by the department executives that further economy may require other reductions in the force soon. The extent and nature of these, however, are not known at this time.

PREACHER WILL SUE MAYOR FOR DAMAGES SAYS HE LED A MOB

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, May 2.—The Rev. George Chalmers Richmond, of Evanston, Wyoming, who is in Salt Lake City, announces that he is conferring with counsel how best to proceed against Mayor Romick of Evanston who, Mr. Richmond charges, led a mob of 60 men to the city hall April 20 and demanded that he leave town.

According to Mr. Richmond, he defied the mob and refused to leave. He says the mob was largely composed of the lawless element, which he had been denouncing ever since he went to Evanston in 1921. Mr. Richmond says that Mayor Romick will be sued for damages in the United States courts in Cheyenne.

He stated that he still resides in Evanston and that the mob spirit has subsided.

Mr. Richmond claims that due to his sermons against law breaking, gambling has diminished, open bars are no more and the moral tone of the town is greatly improved.

Mr Richmond claims that he has the hearty support of the best element of Evanston in his endeavors to improve conditions in that city.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The poor ye have with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.—Mark 14:6.

Not she denied Him with unholy tongue;
She, when apostles shrank, could danger brave,—

COTTON CONSUMPTION INCREASING.

Despite unfavorable financial and industrial conditions in many countries the consumption of cotton is increasing. The U. S. department of commerce estimates the world consumption of cotton for the year that will end July 31, 1922, at 21,000,000 bales, the estimated consumption being six million bales more than the production of the crop year.

There has been an abnormally large carry-over of raw cotton for several years but estimates of the department indicate that this will be reduced to normal by August of this year. The normal carry-over of the world cotton crop is around 8,000,000 bales.

Cotton is as universally used as wheat, but the cotton producing areas are much more restricted than the wheat producing areas. In the restricted areas where cotton is grown the consumption of the commodity has a most vital relation. The estimate of the department of commerce is, therefore, highly gratifying.

BOY, PAGE ANDREW JACKSON.

Mr. Bullington says The Times was unjust to him, in its editorial Sunday, in referring to him as a republican; he never was a republican, he says, and his present political denomination is that of Jacksonian democrat.

Mr. Jackson, we have here a man who wrote the republican state platform in 1920, voted the republican ticket that year, with an exception or two, participated actively in republican councils and star chamber sessions, and now has entered a congressional race at the behest of republicans and has been hobnobbing with republican leaders from Dallas and elsewhere ever since he got home. What kind of a democrat, Mr. Jackson, would you say Mr. Bullington was?

Mr. Jackson did not answer the question directly. He just inquired what the candidate was doing with two surplus syllables in his name.

THE LATEST DEVELOPMENT AT ELECTRA.

The Electra district which has been producing oil for nearly fifteen years has come to the front this week with a 1650 barrel producer from the 1900 foot sand.

The Electra pool, while it has not given the oil world a large number of sensations, has won recognition as one of the most consistent and prolonged producing oil areas in the country and there are indications that it will be producing oil for many years after more sensational pools no longer yield anything.

Electra contradicts a belief that has been somewhat too prevalent that the oil industry in this section would be short lived. Electra has come back strong after fifteen years of good production. Other pools in this section are likely to do the same thing. Oil is likely to be as important an industry here fifteen years from now as it is today.

WHAT'S YOUR "BUG"?

Secret service agents, in raiding the offices of promoters of fake stocks and other get-rich-quick swindles, usually find a "sucker list."

A "sucker list" is made up, for the most part, of names of "cream puffs," same being the name that swindlers apply to gents who, in a general way of speaking, possess at least one share of every stock ever issued. A "cream puff" is sure-fire when baited by a share of stock beautifully lithographed in several colors.

A "sucker-list" follows the name of each "cream puff" with a key like these:

"Will give you the glad hand if you talk about his pet bug, fishing.

"Jolly him about his home garden."

Obviously, these have a cunning appeal to the prospect's inner desires—the things he is most interested in, but to which, usually, he is too busy to give his first attention.

Psycho-analysts call an inner sad repressed desire a "complex." For instance, a man in springtime finds he cannot concentrate on his work. What's really wrong is that he has a "fishing complex."

His subconscious mind wants to go fishing, ahead of doing anything else. Hence the conscious mind, befuddled by the subconscious desire, "has fishing on the brain."

Naturally, he "can't keep his mind on his work." If the man knocks off work and gets out his tackle and rods, a few days of angling will erase his fishing complex. He comes back, finds it easy to concentrate on his job—and is convinced that the change and the fresh country air "did him worlds of good." What really happened is that he downed his fishing complex by gratifying it. As a slangster would put it, he gets his fishing bug out of his system.

Psycho-analysts, in presenting that line of reasoning, seem to think they have found something new.

But it is merely an elaboration of what was defined as "the suppressed function," years ago, by Sheldon, Preston Mulford, David Gibson and other business writers who created the modern psychology of so-called scientific salesmanship.

Nothing new under the sun—though hash does taste different from the original roast of beef.

Have you a complex—a repressed desire? If so, appeasing it to a moderate extent may do you more good than a barrel of medicine.

The wise boys of Wall Street, almost without exception, have found their hobby or "bug" and gratify it—golf, racing horses, yachts, fishing, big-game hunting, raising prize orchids or getting real Scotch from a bootlegger.

HAUNTING TUNES.

What has become of "Over There," "Tipperary" and the other martial tunes that were so popular during the war? You rarely hear them any more. When you do, chances are, some one yells out to turn the record over or put on some jazz.

With Memorial Day coming, there will be a revival of "Dixie," "Marching Through Georgia" and other songs that call up in memory the Civil war.

Musicians are wondering what particular song Americans will always associate with the World War.

The interesting possibility looms, that they will not remember any song in this connection—unless it's written later.

The popular song during the Revolutionary War was "Yankee Doodle." After nearly a century and a half it's "still going strong."

"Hail, Columbia!" was first sung April 25, 1798, by a young actor named Fox, in Philadelphia's Chestnut street theater. While not exactly a war song, it was in the nature of a reaction from the war, expressing young America's exuberance at its independence.

In 1814 the spirit of the war of 1812 saturated the blood and brain of Francis Scott Key. Afire with a militant patriotism, he wrote "The Star-Spangled Banner."

The Civil War left the country with a whole flood of songs, some of them sure-fire today, others good on occasion.

The Spanish-American war dug up the old-timers, including "Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight." This gem, however, dates back to the Chicago fire, which it commemorated. The war with Spain produced no song typical of its period—possibly because so many of the singers died of malaria, "yellow jack" and embalmed beef.

Maybe some one, later on, will burst forth with the song that Americans always will associate with their part in the World War.

The chances, however, are against it, for the national complex is to keep the war buried in memory.

It is dawning on people that modern war is nothing to sing about. Which is a good thing.

Proposed airplane line will make it possible to be robbed in Chicago one morning and shot in New York that afternoon.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE GENTLE RAIN.

How like the circling arms of the lover are the falling bits of rain that touch the earth—finding place on leaves and grass and touching with color and life the beautiful arrangements of nature.

Like pearls dropped into the bosoms of flowers.

How soothing as they hit the window panes and roll to their nests in the ground, to be taken up as life-givers later in buds and bark.

What a thing to watch, what a thing to listen to—this gentle rain that touches the air with its moisture, and perhaps crops up later in some falling stream or bubbling spring.

How the grass greens under its fondling and what a spectacle of beauty when it has ceased and turned over its task to the sun to complete.

We are prone to appreciate too little this great gift of nature—the gentle rain.

If the rain sometimes seems sad it is only because it is thinking. For in every drop there lives hope and promise.

I have watched this gentle rain from a hidden cabin deep in the wild among mountains in the west. I have sat in a tent beside a beautiful lake and watched it mingle its life with that of the waves. I have seen it crossed by rainbows, and have sat in my writing room and heard its patter on the roof and walks outside. And every time I love its message of inspiration and encouragement.

For the gentle rain has a voice all its own—an almost silent language that is universal around the world.

How much we can learn from the rain and its giver! All our benefits would amount to nothing without its gracious coming.

JUST FOLKS

—By— Edgar A. Guest

TWENTY YEARS.

Looking forward it appears
Oh, so long are twenty years;

Twenty years to work and wait,
Twenty years to battle fate.

Twenty years to fame to climb,
Seems too long a stretch of time.

When at last success appears,
Swift were all those twenty years.

And their many hardships seem
But the passing of a dream.

Yesterday we braved a blow—
That was twenty years ago.

Youth be patient as you climb,
Swiftly move the hands of Time.

Many homes and many fears
Turn to joy in twenty years.

Texas Viewpoints

Denison Herald: At Wichita Falls a few days ago and later at Fort Worth, a Ku Klux Klan speaker from Georgia or somewhere else, upon whom has been conferred the title of "colonel," presumably by the emperor of the invisible empire in which he boasts citizenship, declared that Attorney General Daugherty was a member of the klan and that President Harding, if not a member, was in sympathy with the organization. It is interesting to note that both the attorney general and the president have emphatically denied the impeachment. They not only are not members of the organization or citizens of the empire from which the "colonel" hails, but they are not in sympathy with it in any respect.

The question arises, why did "Colonel" Camp make the statement? What purpose had he in view when he said these distinguished officials had honored the klan with membership? Did he know it to be true? Or did he have reason to believe it was true when he imputed klan membership to them? If so, what about the solemn and binding obligation klansmen are supposed to take not to reveal, under pains and penalties to be imposed by the imperial wizard, the identity of those who have sworn to uphold and defend the fiery cross? How could "Colonel" Camp disclose the name of any member of the organization without violating his obligation? What privilege and immunity does he enjoy as a klansman not vouchsafed to his fellow members? How could he reveal to a startled and wondering world the name or names of klansmen and get by with it, when members summoned before grand juries of Texas are forbidden to give information concerning members or anything connected with the organization's alleged activities?

The "colonel" by his own words and acts stands convicted of either wilful violation of the klan obligation or deliberate misrepresentation. There is no escape for him. If it is true that General Daugherty is a member of the klan, according to information made public, the "colonel" had no right to disclose that fact. And disclosure of membership must be inhibited since it became necessary for Mr. Henry to obtain consent of the imperial wizard to tell the public that he was a member. And if General Daugherty is not a member—and his statement denying it should be sufficient—then the speaker misrepresented the facts in order to give the organization a standing it is not entitled to. Either horn of the dilemma "Colonel" Camp chooses will not get him out of the muck of his own wrongful statements.

TOURIST CAMPING GROUND IS PLANNED FOR RANGER

RANGER, May 2.—A tourists' camping ground, together with municipal tennis courts close in, are projects to which the Lions club pledges its support to attain during the spring. These are things which the West Texas chamber of commerce has recommended for Ranger. Ranger daily caters to many tourists traveling a la auto. The club also went on record favoring increasing the school tax from 50 cents to one dollar.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

COLONEL JAMES DISCUSSES LATEST RAILROAD ENTERPRISE

Editor's Note—The following communication is from Col. Jno. G. James of Roff, Okla. Colonel James was a resident of Wichita Falls from 1882 to 1899 and had an important part in the early history of the community, having been one of the leaders in those early days in civic enterprises. Although he has not lived here for many years, Colonel James maintains a great interest in developments here as is indicated by his communication which follows.

ROFF, OKLA., April 28.—Editor The Times: The filling in of the short railway gap between Byers and Waurika by Frank Kell—which now seems assured—will be a master stroke for the increased growth and prosperity of your city. Transportation facilities have largely contributed to your wonderful growth in the past, and the realization of this plan of Mr. Kell's, by which the great Rock Island system will enter Wichita Falls and add 3,000 miles of steel rains to the network of roads over which freight and passengers already travel to and from your city, will be an event of far reaching importance that should benefit every business interest in your community. It will add greatly to the convenience and volume of travel, and especially increase the facilities of your mills, factories, refineries, machine shops, foundries, glass, motor truck and various other plants for receiving their raw materials and for distributing the many millions of dollars' worth of manufactured products which annually are shipped by you over the railway lines that centre in Wichita Falls.

When one considers the potential advantages of such a railway alliance, the possibilities it involves not only for the upbuilding of your city, but also of promoting generally the development of interstate commerce between two rich and populous common wealths, I don't believe that in the whole United States there can be found a parallel case, in which such wonderful results for good can be obtained by building such an insignificant stretch of only 15 miles of rails.

It is extremely fortunate that you have a citizen whose wide vision sees such an opportunity and who has the enterprise, the ability and the influence in railway circles to make the opportunity a reality. Whatever Frank Kell has ever undertaken to do, however big the undertaking, he has done, and done it well. No one doubts his early building of this short connection, the work on which will start soon as the Commission at Washington issues the legal permit required.

One forward move often leads to another. Take a map of Oklahoma and note the town of Ringling in Jefferson county, the present terminus of what is called the "Ringling Railroad," which runs due west from Ardmore. It is only 30 miles from Ringling on west to Waurika, and an easy country over which to build. It is a short line, and doesn't pay, and will not until extended. Whether built in the interest of the Frisco or Rock Island system, we don't know, but both these big systems have a line running into Ardmore, and the Frisco trains now use the Ringling depot in that city. When Rock Island trains are running into Wichita Falls who doubts but what very soon the Ringling road will build on to Waurika. If so, your citizens will have additional reason to give gratitude and honor to Frank Kell for the benefits that will follow from his work.

Bear in mind that at Ardmore the Ringling road connects with lines running east that will connect you directly with the Oklahoma coal fields, the soft coal fields in the United States and put you into the heart of the big pine regions of our state, where immense mills are cutting millions of feet of pine lumber, your nearest source of supply, while along these railways smaller mills are cutting all sorts of hardwood, oak, ash, willow, cottonwood, bois d'arc, etc. Those who have seen only west Oklahoma may imagine the state to be only a great, wide, treeless and fuelless prairie. But go to east part of the state, and just see the incalculable riches there in merchantable timber and its inexhaustible coal field, and you will forget all about the naked prairies of west Oklahoma.

Most business men, absorbed in their affairs and rarely going out of their town unless with their family in an auto for an airing after work of the day is over, know little and care less about an adjoining state, even if in 20 miles of them. Hence many of your people may not know much about Oklahoma, as near as it is to them. I have lived here 32 years, know the state pretty well and can honestly say that my conviction is that in variety, volume and value of natural resources no other state in the Union equals it.

It has practically inexhaustible deposits of coal, salt, gypsum, cement rock, granite, marble, oil, gas; consider its great timber supply, water power beds of asphalt, shales for pottery, tiles, brick; its wide, alluvial river bottoms, rich prairies, fine grazing lands; its cotton, corn, wheat, cattle, hogs, dairy products, poultry, etc., and my statement will not seem visionary.

With these two short connections made, you will have entrance for trade and commerce to a territory you do not now reach but very slightly, that has more population, more resources, greater market for your wholesale merchants, your manufacturers and machinery workers than all the Texas territory you now control. You will have besides the great Rock Island system, a straight east line from Wichita Falls to the Mississippi river, passing through rich, populous counties of Oklahoma and Arkansas and intersecting many north and south lines over which traffic and passengers in great volume can pass. Very much of this region will be more accessible to your city than to any other distributing centre. Its trade will be largely yours, if you want it, and will go for it when the time comes.

There is a big future for Wichita Falls. It has the grandest band of untiring workers—city builders—in the entire southwest. It has the natural location for a wholesale and manufacturing centre. And it has a large, rich and populous trade territory to supply. And in addition, it is now constructing an irrigation plant that will put at your doors the greatest body of rich, irrigated, alluvial land in the United States.

Then why should not the city grow to be in the next 10 or 15 years a place of 250,000? It is not unreasonable to expect it. Go on adding mills, factories, machine shops and other industrial plants, fill your great irrigated valley with intelligent, small farmers and all work together for civic, social, educational and religious improvement, and you will win. Very truly yours,

JNO. G. JAMES.

OUT OUR WAY

BY WILLIAMS

THE SMOKE EVIL

By DR. R. H. BISHOP

Over every large city and numerous small ones in which considerable manufacturing is carried on, there hangs a constant pall of smoke.

Where there is smoke there must be soot, and this is constantly being breathed into the lungs of the people who live in these communities.

Many large cities have taken steps to abate the smoke nuisance. New York has abated the smoke evil more than 50 per cent by proper instruction in hand stoking. Cincinnati has accomplished 47 per cent abatement since 1914 by efficient legislation.

Cleveland is making the smoke evil one of the objectives of its present clean-up campaign.

It is an established fact that diseases of the upper respiratory tract, that is, diseases of the nose, throat and lungs, are greatly increased by the irrigation of coal dust in the air. Pneumonia is increased in frequency and severity by pollution of the air with coal dust.

A smoke pall, also, shuts out the strong rays of the sun, nature's great bacteria killer.

When the air is dirty, it is difficult to keep streets, yards, clothes and your own bodies clean, which means it is difficult to keep them healty also.

The baleful physical effect of smoky, dark and dirty air on human health and happiness has been often emphasized.

It is up to every individual in a smoky community to fight for abatement of the nuisance. Education in proper methods of coal burning and effective legislation will go a long way toward checking the smoke evil.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY.

Today's word is—leopardize.

It's pronounced—jep-ar-dize, with accent on the first syllable.

It means—to expose to loss or injury; to risk.

It comes from—Old French, "jeu parti," an even game; a game in which the chances are even.

It's used like this—"Some New Yorkers are afraid the St. Lawrence deep waterway would jeopardize their port's foreign trade pre-eminence."

The modern silk hat was first worm in England about 1840.

Summa's Work In The Gasser Series Makes a Hit With Athletic Scout

By PAUL W. LARKIN

According to information received in Wichita Falls Monday, Ira Thomas, scout for Connie Mack, watched the Gasser-Spudder series in Shreveport last week. Thomas went to Shreveport to look over Homer Summa and after seeing him work the first time couldn't get to him fast enough when the game was over to ask him if he would care to play with the Athletics.

Though practically every day has been a "good" day for Summa this season, Thomas happened to catch him when he was having one of his best. It was last Friday when "Red" Bird was working for the Gassers. Left handed hitters are generally supposed to be weak against southpaw hitters, but Homer collected a brace of doubles and as many singles off Bird—a feat seldom performed by a right handed hitter. Then to show that he was not hitting over his head, he came back Saturday and walloped "Slim" McGrew and Burns, right handed flingers, for four singles and a triple.

The outcome of their conversation was not divulged, but there is not a chance of the Athletics getting him until the end of the season, if they get him at all.

The Spudders were knocked out of their third contest on the present road trip Monday when rain broke up their game with the Giants. The Salmites now have four double headers coming—one here with Fort Worth, one in Fort Worth, one in Shreveport and one in Dallas.

Tonight at midnight every club in the Texas league will be down to 16 men. Just what 16 Skipper Salm will retain is a difficult matter to dope out, but the hurlers are coming in for considerable interest among the fans. Salm is carrying eight at present—Bowman, Knadler, Clancy, Darrough, Mokan, Ruth, Ramsey and Newkirk. On the strength of their showing to date, the honors are about equal. Not one has been consistent. Bowman and Darrough have turned in one excellent game each, but they have looked wretched in their other starts. Clancy went through half a game in masterly fashion and then cracked. Knadler looks good at times, but usually develops a wild streak before he goes the route. Ruth's work has been a bitter disappointment this season. He was supposed to be ready to go when the gong clanged, but he's not ready yet. Newkirk hasn't shown a thing. Ramsey's work has been fair while Steve Mokan's showing has probably been the best of the lot, though he has not turned in a victory yet. Walter will have to let at least two of these go and may turn three away. One man's guess is as good as another's as to which men will leave.

Sorey had a good day in the field with the Gassers yesterday, but was unable to get a blow as usual. Billy Smith now has Hollohan in center field while a new man—Ezsell—is playing third.

The postponement of Monday's game between the Giants and Spudders worked well for Dallas. It enabled "Lefty" Swartz to get another day's rest. The Salmites certainly get their fill of southpaws when they clash with Dallas. When Jim Galloway cuts down to the limit, he will be forced to turn a few twirlers loose. It won't make Salm mad if he picks on the fork-handers. No such luck!

Cary Mays gets nicked $200 for throwing a baseball over the grandstand in a spring training camp. Waite Hoyt got a reprimand for throwing his fist in his manager's face. How come?

Wonder who'll be elected mayor of St. Louis—Sisler, Hornsby or Williams? There was a time when New York had a monopoly on the slums. But Gotham is fast losing prestige.

Remember.

If a base runner starts to steal a base prior to a battery error, he shall be credited with having stolen the base, and the battery error also be charged against the player committing it.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE HOPES TO PLAY WEDNESDAY

The Twilight league will play its third round Wednesday afternoon if Old Sol will come out long enough to dry the diamond sufficiently. The following teams are scheduled:

Mill and Elevator vs. Pond Laundry.

University Club vs. Shriners.

First Baptists vs. North Methodists.

Legion vs. First Christians.

Inclement weather has caused postponement of one day's schedule in both Twilight and City leagues.

PHILLIE ROOKIE HAS GREAT START

Blanks Dodgers With Three Hits; Major League Record Closely Approached.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Baseball history again was adorned by the work of a rookie pitcher. This time it was Harry Shriver of Saginaw. Shriver's performance in blanking the Phillies 2 to 0, with three lonely bingles, excelled the debuts of Mathewson, Johnson and other pitching stars. The unique feature of the game, however, was the fact that Post, Dodger first sacker, had only one put out, a catch of a line drive in the ninth and no assists.

Jiggs Donahue, formerly of the White Sox, holds the American league record, with no putouts, and only one assist back in 1906.

The Browns were on the top of the American league rung today. They slugged out their fourth victory over the Indians, while the New York Yanks were outplayed for the third straight time by Boston, 5 to 2. It was a Yankee castoff pitcher, Alex Ferguson, who helped push the New Yorkers down the ladder. Ferguson held the Champions to four hits and chalked up his second win of the series. Mays was hit hard and opportunely by the Red Sox.

The Giants mauled three Boston twirlers and won their third straight 10-3, gaining in the league race as Chicago was idle. A triple by Pinch Hitter Rohwer in the eighth gave the Pirates a 7-6 verdict over Cincinnati.

The Philadelphia Athletics caught the home run fever and trounced Washington, and the White Sox made a clean sweep of their series with Detroit, aided by the Tiger's loose fielding.

Gotham fandom is looking forward to May 20 as the date which will not only mark the end of Babe Ruth's exile, but also the first appearance of the season here of Kenneth Williams, the new home run sensation with the St. Louis Browns, thus giving the rival mauliers a shot at the same target.

Williams failed to increase his string of nine homers yesterday, but is still three ahead of the 1921 schedule of Ruth, who made his sixth on May 1.

VERNON MAY INSTALL RADIO TELEPHONE OUTFIT

VERNON, TEXAS, May 2.—Vernon may possess a fully equipped radio telephone outfit in the near future if present plans of the local chamber of commerce are put into effect. In the event a radiophone is obtained it will be one that can receive messages from all parts of the United States. A method of financing such an instrument has not yet been decided upon.

An effort will be made to obtain the use of the district court room for radio meetings. After the equipment has been paid for it is proposed admitting the public free to the demonstration.

BANKS TO ENCOURAGE LIVESTOCK AND POULTRY

RULE, May 2.—Haskell-Knox County Bankers' association at a recent meeting pledged itself to assist and encourage the raising of more and better livestock and poultry and diversified farming in the two counties in line with the campaign now being conducted by the West Texas chamber of commerce. Benjamin was selected as the next meeting place six months hence.

FRANK RESIGNS AS MANAGER OF ATLANTA

ATLANTA, GA., May 1.—Charlie Frank resigned yesterday as manager of the Atlanta Southern association baseball team because of ill health, it was announced. He helped to organize the Southern association 20 years ago. Roy Elam, field manager, has taken charge of the team, at least temporarily.

QUERIES

By BILLY EVANS.

Does a golfer do his game any particular harm if he fails to observe the stymie rule, when playing in friendly competition?—N. L. D.

In playing any sport it is always best to adhere strictly to the rules. The rules were made to govern the game, and if you are playing it, then follow the rules as closely as possible.

The reason for this is that in tournament play the rules are always literally interpreted. And even if one never gets to be more than the ordinary golfer, there are usually several tournaments every year that he wants to enter.

If in ordinary play he doesn't adhere to the rules, he is rather at sea in tournament play.

A great majority of golfers play for the recreation and exercise they derive from the game and ordinarily they don't give a hang about the rules.

Usually when one player happens to stymie another, in the spirit of fair play he moves his ball in order that his opponent may have a clear way to the cup. Of course that is contrary to the rules.

Really there is no particular harm in that. The danger is in throwing off their game in match or tournament play.

All possible situations must be covered by the playing code. This stymie is one of them. It is really best to live up to it, since in the end the luck of the green will even itself up over a given period.

LOW WEEK-END RATES ON TEXAS AND PACIFIC

MINERAL WELLS, TEXAS, May 2.—Effective May 12, low week-end excursion fares will be obtained over the lines of the Texas and Pacific railroad from all points to Mineral Wells, according to information sent to the West Texas chamber of commerce by George D. Hunter, general passenger agent of the line. These reduced excursion tickets will be sold on Fridays and Saturdays. The rate will be one fare plus ten per cent with a minimum selling fare of $4.60, with a time limit of fifteen days.

Mr. Hunter says that this basis has been tendered other lines. He believes that they will accept so that the advantages of the mineral wells may be obtained by persons on other lines.

The new rates are the lowest that Mineral Wells has ever enjoyed, according to Ray Loomas, secretary of the local chamber of commerce.

Billy Evans Says

Looks very much as if Bob Martin is absolutely through as a contender for Jack Dempsey's heavyweight title.

Martin's decisive defeat the other evening at the hands of Joe Burke, practically unknown, just about spells the finish of the A. E. F. champion.

Martin at one time was considered the logical contender for Jack Dempsey's title. Pitted against Bill Brennan he made a great fight. He lost a 15-round decision, but ringside critics said had he been more aggressive he would have won.

Then came a bout with Frank Moran. He stopped the Pittsburger in seven rounds. He did it in a clean-cut manner. This victory, coupled with his fine showing against Brennan, caused fight experts to figure that in a year he would be ready for Dempsey.

Then came a series of set-backs, the greatest of all being his poor showing against Joe Burke. This fellow Burke, by the way, is a protege of Jimmy Duna, who made a champion of Johnny Kilbane, and who now has Bryan Downey and Carl Tremaine as his headliners.

Shortly after the Moran fight, Martin was matched with Fay Keiser, rated as just an ordinary light heavyweight. To the great surprise of the sporting world, Keiser handed him a neat licking.

The story is, that Martin complained of eye trouble after the bout. He attributed his defeat by Keiser to inability to properly focus.

His manager, Jimmy Branson, took him to a prominent specialist who treated him for three months. While still under treatment, Martin was unfortunate enough to run his automobile over an embankment into a tree.

Martin was badly injured in the auto accident, and it was believed that he would never fight again. On recovering he resumed training and seemed to be in old-time condition.

It would seem that something must be radically wrong with Martin, for him to go back as rapidly as his recent fights indicate. Good eyes are most essential to a fighter and it appears as if Martin is handicapped in this respect. The defeat by Joe Burke was the climax to a series of tough breaks.

IF THIS PLAY COMES UP

Here's Your Decision.

Whenever the umpire rules that the pitcher has committed a balk, all base runners are entitled to advance one base. If there is a runner on third he has the right to score. There is an impression among some fans that a runner cannot score on a balk. This is wrong, as the runner on third has the same right to advance to the plate as the runner on first to second of the runner on second to third.

BIG ADVANCE IS MADE IN PRICE OF COTTON

BULLINGTON SAYS POSITION ON TARIFF IS DEMOCRATIC ONE

TELLS UNIVERSITY CLUB HE IS IN LINE WITH JACKSON AND PARRISH.

DOES NOT WANT PLACE SAVE FOR PARTIAL TERM

Opposes Cash Bonus, But Would Not Object to Land Settlement Plan.

A detailed explanation of his position on the tariff, which he declared to be in accord with that first laid down by Andrew Jackson and to be the same tariff position that Lucian Parrish held, was given by Orville Bullington, announced independent candidate for congress, in an address before the University club at noon Tuesday.

Mr. Bullington credited the emergency tariff bill with bringing about the present improvement in business conditions, and blamed free raw material tariff bills for all the panics and hard times of the past 30 years. He declared that none of the other candidates for congress is in accord with the views of Mr. Parrish, and that it was to some extent in the defense of the memory of his friend that he entered the race. He was brought into the race, he said, by democrats and republicans alike.

Mr. Bullington said that he is seeking election to congress only for the unexpired term, and that he would not have the regular term "if it were handed to him on a silver platter."

A brief talk by Lee Clark, explaining the school bond issue, was followed by a unanimous vote of endorsement on the part of the club.

Mr. Bullington was given an eloquent introduction by C. H. Clark, who warmly comemnded his candidacy.

"I'm not a politician," said Mr. Bullington, in opening his remarks. "I've never engaged in political matters, but I have certain fixed opinions on public matters that I believe it wise for the people of this district to adopt."

Mr. Bullington said that he was brought into the race by democrats and republicans who realize that party politics benefits nobody except the politician." He spoke of his long acquaintance with, and friendship for, Lucian W. Parrish, and said that one thing that brought him into the race was the fact that the other four candidates had repudiated Parrish's position on several issues. Particularly was this true, he said, as to the late congressman's position on the Esch-Cummins bill and the emergency tariff.

"The emergency tariff that Parrish voted for has saved this district hundreds of thousands of dollars," Mr. Bullington said, "and I am going to defend his record on it throughout this district."

Mr. Bullington quoted at some length from Andrew Jackson's messages, and from Mr. Parrish's speeches, to show that he was in accord with the position of both as to the tariff.

The only other issue touched upon by Mr. Bullington was the bonus, he declaring emphatically against a cash bonus. He said he would not object to opening public lands to settlement by soldiers.

NEW OVERSIZE TIRES ARE AWAITING OWNER AT STATION

Two brand new oversize tires mounted on the rear wheels of a Ford are being held at the police station awaiting the claim of an owner. The wheels and tires, which represent a considerable outlay of money, have been in the hands of the police for some time, but no claims have ever been made for them and now the officers are anxious to get rid of the property.

They will be turned over to the party making satisfactory identification and giving proper explanations as to how they were lost.

PUBLIC INVITED TO ATTEND SILVER JUBILEE CELEBRATION

An invitation to the public to attend the silver jubilee celebration for Rev. Father Boniface has been issued by the sisters at St. Mary's Academy. The celebration will include solemn high mass at the Church of the Sacred Heart at 9 a. m. with a sermon by the Rt. Rev J. P. Lynch, bishop of Dallas. At 3 p. m. at the Wichita theatre there will be a reception, literary and musical program as a feature of the celebration.

COWBOYS AND GIRLS READY FOR ROUND-UP EVENTS WEDNESDAY

The stage was all set Tuesday afternoon for the opening Thursday of Wichita Falls' fourth annual roundup, which is to begin at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Scores of cowboys, cowgirls, riders, bulldoggers, ropers and performers are here for the first events, and only a few of the familiar faces were missing by Wednesday noon. The few absentees were expected to show up by Thursday morning.

Among the events of Tuesday was the arrival of Miss Nan J. Aspinwall of Laredo, who made the long trip all the way across Texas on horseback. She reached the city hall at 12:47, just 13½ days after her departure from the border city. Her horse was lame and she was a tired young woman, glad that the journey was over. She was met at the city limits by Police Chief McCormick and the roundup officials.

Although muddy roads promised to keep down the number of visitors for the opening day, it was expected that Wichita Falls would turn out en masse for the first performance and leave the remaining days more to those who come from neighboring points.

DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT LEAVES QUESTION OF SOUTH BANK OPEN TO A LATER CONSTRUCTION

WASHINGTON, May 2. — The questions disposed of Monday in the opinion rendered by Justice Vandeventer in the Red river boundary dispute were those relating to title to land in the bed of the river, valuable because of oil and gas discoveries in the big bend country. In many instances the remaining conflict of title cannot be disposed of until the court locates what is the south bank of the river which it has decided is the northern boundary of Texas.

With the question open as to whether the south bank of the river is at the foot of the bluff on the Texas side or is the south bank of the river at normal stages, often a mile or more distant from the bluffs, or whether some intermediate line between the river at normal stage and the bluffs is designated by the court, the rights of the conflicting litigants were in a large measure quieted.

Outstanding points in the opinion were:

The entire bed of the river is within Oklahoma and Texas and its grantees and licenses have no proprietary interest in the bed. It may develop that the receiver in whose custody the court has placed the oil properties in dispute is now holding some land south of the line which will be established as the permanent boundary, and if so, Texas and its grantees and licenses will be free to claim it.

Oklahoma's claim to the lands in the bed of the river were denied on the ground that the river where it forms a boundary with Texas is not navigable.

"While the opinion relating to the part of the river in the eastern half of the state is not so conclusive as to navigability as that relating to the western section," the court stated, "we think it establishes that it is neither used nor susceptible of being used in its natural and ordinary conditions as a highway for commerce.

The court concluded that title to the bed did not pass to Oklahoma when it was admitted into the union, but remained with the United States.

Concerning the riparian claims located between the 38th degree of west longitude and the mouth of the north fork in what is known as the big pasture, opposite the receivership lands, riparian rights were held to extend to the middle of th eriver, the court saying that "we think it (the river) was the channel extending from one cut bank to the other, which carries the water in times of a substantial flow."

"That was the only real channel," it added, "and therefore the main channel."

In reference to placer mining claims based upon the United States ownership of the bed and the opening of the land under the mineral law, and opposed to certain riparian claims, the court stated, "we conclude that this part of the river bed (in which such claims are located) never was subject to location or acquisition under the mining laws nor index to acquisition under any of the land laws and therefore that these locations were of no effect and conferred no rights on the locators or the reassigns."

With regard to the disposal of the lands by the United States on the northerly bank, the decision held that such disposal carried with it a right to the bed of the river as far as but not beyond the middle of the stream.

The lands disposed of under Indian allotments, although they carried no final patents, but were held in trust, were held to have carried an equitable title and that the beneficial use, with riparian rights, would pass under a full patent.

The tracts which originally were non-riparian, but subsequently became riparian, by the inroads of the river and which were all disposed of, also received the attention of the court. Where the tracts in front which came to lie in the river bed were neither allotted nor sold the decision said the rights to the bed out to the center passed to the tracts which became riparian.

"We think the bed of the river in front of the two lots in section eight out to the middle passed to Capshaw" (one of the claimants) it added, "but that no part of the bed passed to him with the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section seven."

The riparian rights of Oklahoma to lands without and out of the Indian reservation will be protected, it was stated by the court.

MAYFIELD TO SPEAK TUESDAY NIGHT IN LOCAL COURT ROOM

Earle B. Mayfield, railroad commissioner, and candidate for the United States senate, arrived in Wichita Falls Tuesday afternoon and will speak Tuesday night at the court house.

Mr. Mayfield was scheduled to speak at the weekly luncheon of the University club Tuesday, but was held up by high water and did not arrive in time.

His talk Tuesday night will start at 8 o'clock and a large crowd is expected. Mr. Mayfield has a number of personal friends here who greeted him Tuesday afternoon.

FORMER MINISTER OF BURKBURNETT ON TRIAL

F. W. Etheridge, formerly a minister at Burkburnett, went on trial before a jury in the county court at law Tuesday afternoon on the charge of aggravated assault. The prosecuting witness is a 16 year old boy. The offense is alleged to have been committed on or about December 23, 1921.

SOUTHERN OIL CAR JUMPS TRACK NEAR CLEAR FORK RIVER

ELIASVILLE, TEXAS, May 2.— The Wichita Falls & Southern local was wrecked here today. As it came in from the north an oil car jumped the track and rolled off the dump. The wreck has blocked the public highway that gives passage across the river. Men are at work moving the wrecked car so that traffic may cross the bridge.

As the Clear Fork river recedes the dump is siding and great damage is looked for within the next few days.

The officials here expect the road to be impassable when the water pressure is taken off the dump.

GULF-JENNINGS HAS SMALL FLOWS AND MAY EXTEND SAND

The Gulf Production company's No. 1 well on the Grace Jennings tract in the South Electra pool was drilled in Tuesday but early in the afternoon no accurate estimate could be put on the initial production. The cement plug was drilled out Monday night and the sand penetrated a few feet. According to reports from the field the hole quickly filled up with fluid and made several flows.

Much interest is being mainfested in this test as a producer will be the means of extending the 1900 foot sand two miles northeastward from the Harvey well almost to the city limits, and to the Texas company's No. 215 on the Waggoner about three miles due south proving up a large scope of territory of triangular shape.

FILM SHOWING GOODYEAR TIRE MANUFACTURE IS SHOWN TO LOCAL DEALERS

A large number of local tire dealers were present Tuesday afternoon at the presentation in the Kemp hotel of a moving picture showing the manufacture of Goodyear automobile tires. The show was arranged and offered by the Dallas distributing branch of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company and was given for the benefit of all Goodyear tire dealers in this city.

The film depicted the manufacture of tires from the time crude rubber is gathered until the finished product is placed on a car. It explained in detail the various steps of manufacture and was highly interesting as well as instructive.

E. E. Stout, factory representative from the Goodyear plant; J. L. Adams, district salesman for this territory; R. E. Rain of the Dallas office, and Bruce Hess, movie operator in charge of the pictures, were in the city Tuesday in the interests of the show.

A number of local auto dealers attended a dinner at the Kemp Tuesday noon and remained for the picture which started at 2 o'clock.

ROB A PAYMASTER AND MURDER HIS CHAUFFEUR

MEXICO CITY, May 2.—The paymaster of La Corona company was robbed of 30,000 pesos shortly after leaving Buenas Vista camp near Tampico last Saturday, said a dispatch received here today. His chauffeur was killed and his automobile was wrecked, the dispatch said.

MORGAN-WILLIAMS JOINT DISCUSSIONS RENEWED TUESDAY

The repeated challenge of S. A. L. Morgan, candidate for congress, to his opponent, Guinn Williams, to renew the arrangement for joint discussions has been accepted by the Decatur candidate, who has agreed to again divide time with Mr. Morgan. Word to this effect was received here Tuesday morning.

The joint discussions formerly held by these two candidates were discontinued recently by Mr. Williams. Since that time Mr. Morgan has, in advertisements and otherwise, sought to have the arrangement renewed.

The two candidates were to speak at Denotn Tuesday.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Robert L. Alexander is here from Munday.

E. A. Dale and J. F. Davis of Electra are here on business.

Judge A. H. Carrigan is expected home Tuesday from Washington.

Miller Prince, Dick Bosters and Carey Scott are here from Electra.

Superintendent R. W. Miller of the Southern spent Tuesday in Graham.

Superintendent F. W. Grace of the Northwestern was in Altus Tuesday.

John Morrissy of the Panhandle Refining company is here from the panhandle.

Judge Forgey, Tom Looney and Dr. Hooper are among the Archer county visitors in the city.

E. J. Mason, representing the Continental Supply at Mexia, is here looking after legal matters.

L. L. Albritton will leave Tuesday for San Antonio to attend a state meeting of electrical men.

Wyatt Parrish of Plainview is in town for a few days looking after his affairs in the Archer county fields.

W. M. Wheeler of Fort Worth, field agent for the west Texas chamber of commerce, was here Tuesday on organization business.

A subscription dance is planned by local parties for Wednesday night at the Kemp. Invitations are being issued to all cowboys and cowgirls participating in the roundup.

Dr. Frank S. White of the Northwest Texas insane asylum left Monday afternoon for Austin, where superintendents of all state associations are to meet Wednesday with the state board of control.

L. C. Heydrick left for South Bend in Young county where he is looking after the affairs of the new well which was brought in on his school house tract that from late reports is making in the neighborhood of 500 barrels.

The local store of the National Supply company will be closed Wednesday from 2 to 3 o'clock, that being the hour set for the funeral of William H. Hardee, one of the founders of the company, who died Monday at Toledo, Ohio. National stores throughout the country will be closed during the funeral hour.

City Detective Jack Miller returned Monday night from Bowie, Texas, with Jess White, alleged negro housebreaker, who is wanted here in conection with an Austin street servant house robbery last Sunday night. The negro is now in the city jail awaiting further investigation of his complicity in the theft.

11 FILLING STATIONS ORDERED CLOSED BY STATE INSPECTOR

Investigations of complaints against filling stations in this city were being vigorously pushed Tuesday afternoon by a state inspector working with officials of the public safety department. It is understood that 11 filling stations have been ordered closed and that further developments may be expected shortly.

Over 100 complaints had been made to the police department regarding the stations, it is said, and an investigation of all these is being made.

ENACT MEASURE TO EXTEND 3 PER CENT IMMIGRATION LIMIT

COMPLETE ARRANGEMENTS FOR ELECTION IN IRELAND

DUBLIN, May 2.—The returning officer for the Southern Irish election announced today that the elections directed to be held by the provisional government would take place early in June. He said that notwithstanding the refusal of the Dublin corporation to co-operate with the provisional government all arrangements had been practically completed.

CALIFORNIA LEADING ALL OTHER STATES IN RADIO BROADCASTING

OHIO IS SECOND AND THEN PENNSYLVANIA AND NEW YORK.

SANCTION STATIONS IN A MAJORITY OF STATES

United States Practically Alone in Magnitude and Type of Development.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—California has "fallen for" radio broadcasting harder than any other state. Ohio comes second, and Pennsylvania and New York follow close behind. These facts are gleamed from a bulletin on the geography of radio broadcasting issued from the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the National Geographic society.

"Licenses issued for broadcasting music and entertainment features have now sanctioned stations covering practically the entire United States," says the bulletin. "Such stations exist in two thirds of the states, and some of the commonwealths are literally peppered with them. The desire to contribute to the entertainment of the populace through the ether seems to be most widespread in California. Of the 187 licenses issued up to the middle of April specifically for the sending of music and entertainment features at 360 meters, 37, or more than one-fifth of the total number, were for California locations.

Waves Fly Over Every State.

"Fourteen licenses went to Ohio, which has the second largest number of stations, 12 to Pennsylvania, and 11 to New York. Such outlying states as Washington and Texas had eight and five stations respectively, Minnesota had four, New Mexico two and Maine one. With the exception of the Dakotas, the only states without broadcasting stations for music west of the Mississippi were the mountain states: Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Idaho and Montana, and all these can be reached by the stations east and west of them. In the south only four states are without such stations: Florida, Mississippi, South Carolina and Kentucky. In New England only three states are without stations for sending concerts: Rhode Island, Vermont and New Hampshire. But these stationless states, like those of the west, are bombarded nightly by ether waves from across their borders.

"The number of licenses issued in a state is not a true index, however, to that state's importance in the broadcasting field. Between 80 and 100 of the licenses so far issued are held by local electrical supply shops and similar concerns, and many of them send only once a week and with rather weak transmitting sets. The United States, and sections of Canada and Mexico, is really covered adequately by broadcasting stations in a dozen or fewer locations. Among the most important of these are the stations in or near Springfield, Mass., New York City, Schenectady, N. Y., Washington, D. C., Pittsburgh, Detroit, Kansas City, Dallas, Denver, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle.

"The waves from the great majority of the local stations broadcasting concerts are not heard beyond a radius of a few miles because they use only about 100 watts or one-tenth of a kilowatt of power. In contrast, most of the leading broadcasting stations, which are heard sometimes at distances of 1,000 to 2,000 miles, use from one to one and one-half kilowatts.

"The station which has received official permission to use the greatest power in transmitting concerts is located at Newark, N. J. It is licensed to use up to three kilowatts, but normaly does not reach this maximum. A Pittsburgh station is licensed to use two kilowatts, and a station at Schenectady, N. Y., one and one-half watts. The experimental station of the naval radio service at Anacostia in the edge of Washington, D. C., uses one and one-half kilowatts.

"The United States is practically alone in the magnitude and type of its broadcasting development. Broadcasting reached considerable proportions first in Germany, but on a different basis. The German government broadcasted grand opera from Berlin and then added reports on market conditions, stock quotations and governmental activities. In New England the postoffice is sending out concerts from a few points. A closer approach to American broadcasting methods is being made now in France where 'ether concerts' are becoming commoner than elsewhere in the eastern hemisphere. In no other countries besides the United States, however, have large numbers of private companies, institutions and individuals been licensed to broadcast."

LEGAL NOTICE

CONSTABLE'S SALE.

By virtue of a certain order of sale issued by the clerk of the county court of Wichita county, on the 27th day of April, 1922, in a certain case wherein John W. Bradley is plaintiff and Glenn G. RECENT RAINS HAVE BOOSTED THE PRICE ON COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, May 2.—Fear of an unfavorable start of the new cotton crop was held responsible for greatly increased activity and strength in the local cotton market today. Buying was more general and heavier than it has been for months. The price of May contracts advanced to 19.80 while October sold to 18.94 or 65 to 81 points over yesterday's closing quotations.

At these figures the market showed an advance of approximately $7 a bale as compared with the prices of last March. Reports of improving demand for spot cotton in the south and a more favorable view of world's trade outlook contributed to the advance but the continuation of recent rains and floods in the southwest was considered the chief factors by local brokers.

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The cotton market showed renewed strength and increased activity during today's early trading. The buying movement which had been in progress at the close yesterday appeared to find further encouragements in reported continued rain in Texas and firmness of Liverpool. May touched 19 cents while October advanced to 18.65. There were 55 May notices reported but they had little or no effect on the general market. Wall street and western interests were reported active buyers on the advance.

There was enough realising to cause reactions of 15 or 20 points from the best early in the afternoon and the trading became less active, but there was no change in the general news with the market ruling steady around 19.38 for May and 18.89 for October shortly after 2 o'clock or 80 to 90 points net higher.

Trading continued very active late in the morning with the market showing still great strength after the publication of the forecast of showers or rain. May led the advance around midday on covering by scattered shorts who seemed to find comparatively few contracts offering and were forced to pay up to 19.50 for that delivery—81 points net higher. July sold at 18.83 and October 18.94, making net advances of about 65 to 74 points on these deliveries. There was heavy realising sales on the advance but they were absorbed with apparent ease as the market was within 6 to 7 points of the best at the noon hour.

The market closed strong.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, May 2.—More rain in the belt put the price of cotton up for gains of nearly $2 a bale in the first hour of the session today. Texas sent in claims of fresh damage to crop, complaining that bottom lands were again being overflowed by heavy rains. The weather map indicated that the moisture had spread over the entire belt. Outside interests bought heavily from the opening, forcing the trading months 56 to 59 points up to new high levels for the present dull movement. July touched 18.21 and October touched 18.36.

Private reports of rain in the lower Mississippi valley caused fresh buying and at 12:30 prices were back practically to the highest, July trading at 18.40.

Telegrams from some sections of Texas to local brokers said that the situation was getting critical for the crop on account of too much rain. Telegrams from Oklahoma reported seed beginning to rot in the ground. Galveston cleared 35,519 bales of cotton for foreign export. These features increased the advance to 72 to 77 points, carrying July to 18.42 and October up to 18.51 but just before 11 o'clock there was a sharp break under realising by longs of 30 to 32 points, which carried July off to 18.10.

The cotton market closed very steady at net advances of 75 to 82 points.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, May 2.—Wheat tended upward this morning. Export demand was said to be active and there was talk that the French crop promised to be short. On the other hand receipts in Chicago were liberal, 200 cars, and there were some further deliveries this morning on May contracts. The opening which varied from ⅛c decline to ⅛c advance, with May $1.41⅞ and July $1.28⅛@1.28¼, was followed by upturns to well above yesterday's finish all around.

There was some buying of May and selling of July on the part of a cash house. Otherwise trade was light. The close was unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish, 2¼c higher, with May $1.43⅞ to $1.43⅞ to $1.28⅜.

Corn and oats were firmer with wheat. After opening at 1c off to ⅛c up, July 65⅞@65⅞c, corn scored slight general gains.

In the later dealing something of a downturn in prices took place in corn, domestic shipping for it being light and export bids being out of line. The finish was unsettled ⅛c net lower to a shade advance with July 65⅞c.

Oats started unchanged to ⅛c higher, July 40@40⅛c, and later hardened a little more.

Continued demand for ribs rallied provisions.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, May 2.—Dutch oil shares were especially active and strong at the opening of today's stock market on cables announcing that they were to receive concessions in Russia's oil fields. Shell Transport rose 1½ points and Royal Dutch gained one point, the domestic group also displaying firmness. Independent steels derived further strength from another advance of pig iron prices, Lackawanna and Crucible being in especial demand. Studebaker added one point to yesterday's spirited rally and shippings rose on buying mercantile marine preferred and Atlantic Gulf. Initial quotation for rails, copper and specialties were fractionally higher.

New groups of stocks were bid up, speculative sentiment ignoring indications of realising and distribution in special issues. Buying embraced a wide variety of shares with the demand for popular issues like the shippings, Studebaker, Chandler and Baldwin giving tone to the entire market. Numerous specialties registered advances of 2 to 4 points, while mony of the recognized leaders fared equally as well.

The closing was strong. Sales approximately 1,100,000 shares.

LEGION PLANS TO MAKE AIR CARNIVAL BIGGER THAN EVER

An aerial carnival of even greater proportions than that scheduled for last Saturday and Sunday will be staged next Saturday and Sunday by the American Legion, according to an announcement, which says:

"The American Legion had hoped to bring together at a flying meet the greatest number of prominent flyers in the United States.

"The success of this meet was proven Saturday by the wonderful exhibition of these daring men without a mishap of any kind. Sunday was to have been a greater day as many of the best events were on the program for that date.

"Although the weather stopped this it was a great success as it won the confidence of the people. Now through the increased supporters of this meet, it is planned to make it even a greater meet and a bigger success than ever.

"Saturday's and Sunday's meet promises plenty of excitement to the people who demand the daring stunts while the more conservative have not been forgotten. In order that the citizens of Wichita Falls may have a part in making this a success it has been arranged for the ones helping in this meet to be given rides in commercial planes.

"Any citizen selling 50 tickets to the meet will receive a ticket to the meet and an airplane ride free.

"On May 3 Aviator Erlett Williams and Mr. Lopp, chief test pilot of the Laird Aeroplane Co. will be at the high school to assist in arranging teams for the purpose of selling tickets. The first 10 teams of two boys or girls to sell the most tickets will be given a free ride and the team selling 300 tickets or more will be given a free ride for 25 miles and return.

"The programs for the two days have been changed and added to so that it will be necessary to start promptly at 1 o'clock in order to have all events before dark."

TESTIFIES AMERICAN VESSELS ARE NOW THE CHEAPEST TO OPERATE

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Recent reductions in the size and wages of crews on American vessels engaged in foreign trade have destroyed any argument for a subsidy to owners of American ships, based on the difference of wage paid by them and foreign ship owners, W. J. Bassler, president of the International Seaman's union, testified at hearings on the proposed subsidy today.

American ships today carry the smallest crews of any vessels in the world, and so far as labor is concerned, American boats are now the cheapest to operate, the Seaman's leader declared.

Australia is offering inducements to immigrants.

CONSTRUE DECISION OF SUPREME COURT AS PARTIAL VICTORY

OPINION INDICATES LINE WILL BE FIXED ALONG RIVERS CUT BANK.

3,500,000 BARRELS OF OIL HELD BY RECEIVER

Semi-Annual Report of Delano Has Been Filed With Court at Washington.

A very hopeful view of the final outcome of the Red river boundary case is taken by Judge A. H. Carrigan, attorney for some of the large land owners most vitally affected by the suit, who returned late Monday from Washington.

The complete elimination of Oklahoma as a contestant in the case Judge Carrigan considers an important point for the Texas owners, while the portions of the decision affecting the navigability of the stream, and the claims of placer companies also point to a holding that the cut bank is the boundary, he thinks

The extent to which the land owners are effected by the case is indicated by the semi-annual report of Frederic A Delano, federal receiver just filed with the supreme court The report shows that a total of 3,500,000 barrels of oil have been taken from the river area in two years, an average of nearly 4,800 barrels per day

The statement shows that the production of the older district, known as the Big Bend area, or east of the Grandfield bridge, has diminished to 32,987 barrels from 82 wells, for the month of March, 1922. The high production of the area was in May, 1920, when 99 wells brought in 93-808 barrels. The low production was in February, 1922, being 20,467 barrels The loss in that production has been made up in part by the increased production from new wells west of Grandfield bridge, but their production is diminishing very considerably, the report shows, and is about one-half the previous maximum production of the latter area

Wells west of the bridge to the number of 29 produced their high record of 132,630 barrels in July, 1920, while 59 wells in March of this year brought in only 65 136 barrels Of these 59 wells all but 10 were being operated by the receiver and of these 49 three are on the margin of the flood plain, the remainder being in the river bed.

The financial statement submitted to the court shows the revenue derived from the sale of oil produced from lands under supervision of the receiver in the two years has amounted to $9,379,900 The net value of the capital assets in hands of receiver is given as $11,929, added to which is book value of warehouse stock $27,876, the current assets embracing the following: Inventory of crude oil $26,011, due from pipe line companies and others for oil runs $112,843, other accounts receivable $46,971, United States treasury certificates with accrued interest $975,050. Victory notes with accrued interest $1,216,625, cash in bank $246,936. These amounts less accounts payable and reserved for contingencies, $86,293, leave a balance held by the receiver of $2-892,100.

GROCERY ON KEMP BOULEVARD IS ROBBED MONDAY NIGHT

By tearing away a screen and then smashing a rear window thieves Monday night gained entrance to the L. C. Wasson grocery, 2400 Kemp boulevard, from which they escaped with canned goods and other edibles valued at about $30. No cash was missed from the place, according to reports to police.

This was the only robbery reported to officers as having been committed Monday night.

Career of Noted Dice Expert Ends By Suicide Route

SAN BERNARDINO, CAL., May 2.—Leo Friedman, said to be one of the cleverest dice experts in the country, is dead, by his own hand—the hand that rolled "seven" and "eleven" for nearly half a million dollars in the last 20 years

Friedman cheated for the first time in his life, his friend said, when yesterday he beat the spectre of tuberculosis by shooting himself as fate was shaking the dice He could have lived but a few days longer. He died penniless

A year ago he came back from Cuba with $20,000 he won in a few weeks, but gave it away in a few months to youngsters.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express to our numerous friends our sincere thanks and deep appreciation for their many kindnesses and thoughtful attentions during the long illness and death of our wife and mother, Mrs Geo Simmons and family

Y. M. C. A. WILL BE UNDERTAKEN HERE WITHIN NEAR FUTURE

COMMITTEE NAMED MONDAY NIGHT TO KEEP IN TOUCH WITH PROJECT.

COMMUNITY'S NEED OF INSTITUTION ADMITTED

International Industrial Secretary Tells of Work That Organization is Doing.

Wichita Falls was committed Monday night, more or less definitely, to undertaking the construction of a modern Y. M. C. A. plant in this city; not this year, probably, but within the not distant future. At a meeting Monday evening at the Wichita club about 30 representative business men declared themselves already convinced of the necessity for such an institution here, but agreed that it should not be undertaken until some other projects that have prior claim, are disposed of.

"This is the day to raise to its highest power every constructive force," was the keynote of a stirring talk by C. R. Towson of New York, international industrial secretary of the Y. M. C. A

A committee of seven was named to keep in touch with state and international Y officials and to determine when the time is ripe for starting a campaign here. It was indicated that this will not be done until the Y. W. C. A building program, to which the community is already committed, is an accomplished fact The committee consists of W. D. Cline, chairman; Frank Kell, W. B. Hamilton, W. M. Priddy, Lee Clark, R. E. Shepherd, J. W. Culbertson.

In speaking of his experiences in industrial Y. M. C A. work, Mr. Towson said that many business men had answered the question of what was needed in industry, and that the same answer, in different forms was returned—efficiency.

"There can be no efficiency except on a character basis," Mr. Towson said

Mr. Towson declared that more pay, shorter hours, better working conditions could never satisfy the working man, that his pay must include "something like fraternity."

"Pay, work hours and working conditions are not as important as attitudes, relations, intercourses," said Mr. Towson. He said that the railroads of the country, in the face of all of the financial troubles of recent years, had never reduced their contributions to the support of the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Towson added that the Y. M. C. A. was not in the position of going around with its hat in its hand, begging, but that it was ready to render a service wherever it was called upon to do so.

L. A. Coulter, of Dallas, state secretary, spoke briefly on some phases of Y. M. C. A. work. A. B. Minear of Denver, H. P. Demand of Denver, H. L. Crate of Kerrville, M. E. Brown of Houston and J. E Lewis of Dallas were Y. M. C. A. workers attending the meeting

LOCAL STUDENTS GO TO COMPETE IN ALL-STATE EVENTS

Five literary contestants, one track man, three tennis entrants and about twenty orchestra members, comprising as a whole the Wichita Falls public school entry list in the state interscholastic meet, will leave Wednesday morning for Austin to compete in the important contests to decide state champions in the various fields. Miss Juanita Kinsey and Miss Genevieve Goff, high school faculty members, will accompany the local delegation.

Those students making the trip are Fred Couper, junior boy declaimer; Ray Bland, senior boy declaimer; Louise Scott, senior girl declaimer; Stella Winters and Frances Jones, girls' debate; Leo Baldwin, athletics, and Paul Hines, William Powers and Clifton Haynes, tennis entrants. Hines will represent the local high school in tennis singles, while the latter two, who were runners-up in the tennis doubles last year, will make up the doubles team again.

The orchestra is not to compete with similar organizations, but will furnish musical entertainment for the meet. It is considered as one of the best high school musical organizations in the state and is to be utilized by school music directors as an argument for the securing of recognition for music work in the interscholastics.

The local representatives will return to Wichita Falls Sunday, according to present plans.

C. F. KERNS FOUND NOT GUILTY IN COUNTY COURT

C. F. Kerns, charged with violation of the plumbing ordinance, was found not guilty in the county court at law Tuesday morning by a jury. It was charged that he was doing plumbing without a license. The defendant plead that he was only a common laborer and was not engaged in plumbing work.

These May Sales Provide a Real Thrill

—for all women who love dainty white goods and pretty cotton and like to buy them at low prices.

The wonderful merchandise that is shown in a dozen different sections of our store represents months of preparation.

How carefully we selected first among the muslins and nainsooks, the dimities, percales and Swiss muslins. How we enthused over the graceful lines, the charming laces and embroideries and the stunning new styles of the undermuslins.

What beautiful blouses and white shoes we sorted over to get the best and smartest, and how delighted we were when we opened them all up to see the wonderful collections we had assembled.

What adorable house dresses and aprons we found this year! How much they will add to the gratification of women who like to look well during the busy hours around the home.

What a joy to thrifty housekeepers to see how much lower the prices now are on sheets and pillow cases, on fine linens, towels, organdies—Swisses and tissues.

It is a delight for us to sell as well as for you to buy all these universally wanted things at such appetizing prices.

And now THE STORE IS FULL OF THEM—and the best goods with their attractive low prices are displayed on every hand.

Come to this big May Sale of White and May Sale of Summer Cottons—tomorrow!

If you are not ready to buy—come anyhow, we are always glad to show you.
